SPRUNG SURPRISE

A DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL FUNCTION AT MRS. H. KNIGHT'S HOME LAST NIGHT.

ANNOUNCED A COMING MARRIAGE

That of Miss Leona McVey to Mr. F. C. Hoyt, of Cincinnati—Was Also Eighth Wedding Anniversary of the Hostess.

Mrs. Horace Knight very affably entertained thirty lady friends at whist at her home, 709 West Fifth street, Tuesday night, the event being in honor of a bride-to-be. also to announce an approaching marriage and to celebrate the hostess' wedding anniversary.

The bride-to-be is Miss Christine Spencer, whose marriage to Lee Gentry was announced in last Sunday's Democrat-Sentinel.

The announcement was that of Frank Corliss Hoyt, a former Sedalian, now of Cincinnati, O., to Miss Leona McVey.

The wedding anniversary was that of Mrs. Knight, whose marriage to Mr. Knight occurred in Philadelphia, Pa., eight years ago Tuesday.

The early part of the evening was devoted to whist playing, the prize, a beautiful pin, being won by Miss Bess Doyle, while to Miss Spencer was awarded a bride's beautiful picture.

After distributing the prizes, the hostess very modestly announced a surprise to be sprung, and quietly informed the guests of the approaching marriage of Mr. Hoyt to Miss McVey, the date to be announced later.

The announcement came as a complete surprise to the guests present, for not the slightest intimation had been given of the hostess' intention in that line, and after extending congratulations to Miss McVey, the latter announced the third part of the celebration, that of Mrs. Knight's wedding anniversary.

The function, which had been quietly arranged, was not concluded until a late hour, at which time the hostess served dainty refreshments, following which the guests took their departure, voting Mrs. Knight one of the most clever entertainers in the Queen City's social list.

The marriage of Mr. Hoyt and Miss McVey will be solemnized at Columbia, where the bride-elect now resides.

Mr. Hoyt formerly lived here, at which time he was connected with the F. & P. Lighting System, later being promoted and transferred to Cincinnati, O., where he is at present located. He is a son of the Rev. Dr. F. C. Hoyt, of Cleveland, O., and is a young man of sterling worth and integrity.

Miss McVey, it can sincerely be said, is one of the most popular ladies who has made Sedalia her home. A decided blonde and endowed with a lovely disposition, coupled with culture and refinement, Miss McVey has a wide circle of acquaintances, all of whom are her friends, and the news of her approaching marriage will be cheerfully received by all. The Democrat-Sentinel happily joins in extending congratulations.

HE WORKED A BARBER

How a Stranger Victimized "Billy" Meyers Last Night.

"Billy" Meyers, the tonsorial artist at the Antlers hotel, has a thorough case of disgust, in consequence of which he is somewhat out of humor today.

About 7 o'clock last evening a stranger, plainly attired, entered the shop and ordered a hair cut and shave. The job was completed in elegant style, for "Billy" wanted to do the work right in order to secure a new customer.

After he had finished the man put on his overcoat and hat and ran from the shop, going east on Third street as fast as his feet would carry him.

Two of the barbers followed in pursuit, but they did not prove fleet enough and the new customer got away.

RECEPTION FOR PASTOR

Was Tendered at the Church Parlors Last Night.

The Rev. Paul Stoerker, who last month succeeded the Rev. Otto Press as pastor of Emmanuel German Evangelical church, and wife, were last night tendered a delightful reception at the church parlors, there being some 300 ladies and gentlemen in attendance.

There was no set program, to extend a royal welcome to the popular young divine and his esteemed wife being the sole object, and splendidly did they succeed.

Brandt's orchestra furnished delightful music during the evening, social converse being interspersed between the selections.

Refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, coffee and cake were served, and the function proved to be one of the most enjoyable in the history of the church.

MRS. DOHERTY ILL

SEDALIA LADY WAS SEIZED EN ROUTE TO TEXAS TO VISIT THREE SISTERS.

DOWN WITH PLEURO-PNEUMONIA

Letter Received Today Says Her Condition Is Serious—She Is Employed as Saleslady at Bondi's Store.

The many friends of Mrs. Rose Doherty, in charge of the suit department of Bondi Bros. & Co., is very ill with pluro-pneumonia at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. B. Hutton, formerly Miss Anna Guihen, at Humble, Texas.

Mrs. Doherty left here a few days ago on a vacation for a visit at Springfield, Mo., with her sister, Mrs. P. H. Gillespie, formerly Miss Lulu Guihen, of Sedalia.

Mesdames Doherty and Gillespie left Springfield for a visit with Mrs. Hutton, and also intended to visit two other sisters, Mrs. Fred Parell, formerly Miss Pet Guihen, of Beaumont, Texas, and Miss Crissie Guihen, who is teaching in the public schools at Beaumont.

It was while en route to Humble that Mrs. Doherty was taken ill, and a letter received by a Sedalia friend today from Mrs. Gillespie said:

"Rose is in a serious condition, but she is under the care of a good physician, and we have strong hopes for her recovery."

Mrs. Doherty is one of the best known and most popular salesladies in Sedalia, and the prayers of a legion of friends will be offered for her early convalescense.

Apache Tribe Had Good Session at the Hall Last Night.

At Tuesday night's meeting of the members of Apache tribe No. 55, I. O. R. M., further arrangements were made for the meeting of the great council of Missouri, which will be held here on May 17 and 18.

The location committee reported that the criminal court room had been secured for the council meetings, and the sessions will be held there.

The delegates will begin arriving on Sunday, May 15, on which date the credentials committee will meet. The council sessions proper, however, will not begin until Tuesday.

More than two hundred delegates are expected to attend.

One application was balloted on during the meeting.

CAUGHT STEALING COAL

Detective Took Shot at Unknown Man Last Night.

An unknown man was caught stealing coal from the Missouri Pacific in the east yards at 8:30 o'clock last night by W. J Kemp, a secret service officer for the company.

The detective requested the man to halt, but the thief started to run instead.

The detective fired at the fleeing man, but the darkness hindered him from hitting his mark and the stranger made good his escape.

A Fire at Mr. Hickerson's.

Fire was discovered in the upper hallway of the A. S. Hickerson home, 808 West Sixth street, by Mrs. Hickerson, at 12:45 o'clock this afternoon. The fire department was notified and extinguished the blaze. The damage was $25, covered by insurance.

DID DR. HYDE DO IT?

CORONER'S JURY FINDS KANSAS CITY PHYSICIAN CAUSED SWOPE'S DEATH.

HIS INTENT IS LEFT IN DOUBT

Verdict Was Returned at 1 O'clock This Afternoon, After One Hour's Deliberation—Hyde Refused to Testify.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 9—"Col. Thos. H. Swope came to his death by reason of strychnine administered in a capsule by Dr. B. C. Hyde, but whether by felonious intent or not we, the jury, are unable to say."

This verdict was rendered at 1 o'clock this afternoon by the coroner's jury which investigated the death of Col. Swope at Independence, after being out one hour.

When the inquest opened this morning Dr. Hyde was called to the stand, but his attorneys declined to let him testify and he was excused for the time.

Miss Kellar, the nurse, was then recalled.

The inquest ended at noon. At that time the inquiry into the causes that led to the death of Col. Thomas Hunton Swope was given over to the jurymen.

The last session proved to be a sensational one, for Dr. B. C. Hyde, physician to Col. Swope on the day he died, and the prescriber of a digestive capsule which preceded the death only a short while, refused to testify to the coroner's jury and refused even to be sworn.

The scene lasted only a few moments, but in that time more excitement was crowded than in the entire two days of the testimony. It was a space of time in which pulses beat with excitement and in which the eyes of the jurymen, spectators, witnesses and even the stenographers forgot everything else except to direct their every attention to the four figures—Frank P. Walsh, Hyde's attor; Dr. B. F. Zwart, county coroner; Virgil Conkling, prosecuting attorney, and Dr. Hyde.

The coroner's lips were just beginning to frame the name of Hyde when Walsh arose.

"The attorneys for Dr. Hyde have advised him not to testify," Walsh said. "We don't care for him to testify here and therefore at our suggestion he must decline to be sworn."

Then Prosecuting Attorney Conkling broke in: "I have here a copy of a newspaper," he began. "It contains a signed statement by Dr. Hyde, and in the light of his refusal to testify I desire to—"

Then Walsh almost shouted: "If this is done for purpose of publication I—"

"I hold," said the coroner, "that the coroner has the right to examine witnesses, and that Dr. Hyde was subpoenaed in the regular way and must therefore testify."

"We refuse to allow the witness to testify," insisted Walsh.

Then Prosecutor Conklin, still with the newspaper copy of Hyde's statement in his hand, the statement in which Hyde said he was willing to testify at any inquiry, declared:

"That is sufficient for the purposes of the prosecutor."

Yesterday in the Swope Case.

Mrs. L. O. Swope testified that Miss Kellar, the nurse, was called at Dr. Hyde's suggestion. Says Col. Swope was feeling better than usual the night before his death and that Dr. Hyde directed that digestive tablets be given to him. She didn't know, she says, about Col. Swope's bequests, but it was understood by the relatives, Dr. Hyde included, that Mrs. Swope's children were to be the main beneficiaries. Col. Swope talked often of his property, but she knew nothing definite about it, except that he didn't want it all to go to his nieces and nephews. He didn't like children and her daughters and son were not on intimate terms with him, she testifies. Col. Swope had often said he didn't expect to live long, but had said nothing within several weeks of his death about expecting to die soon. Moss Hunton, she testified, had tablets containng strychnine in his medicine chest, which was near Col. Swope's room. Col. Swope had talked of changing his will shortly before his death, she says. She threw away much medicine after Col. Swope's death. She says she feels no ill will toward Dr. Hyde.

Dr. Ludwg Hektoen, the Chicago pathologist, testifies that Col. Swope's vital organs were all practically normal, and that the body was frozen when the autopsy was held. Embalming had no effect on the analysis, he says. Says he put parts of Col. Swope's body in glass jars and took them in his suit case to Chicago, where he, Dr. Haines and Dr. Vaughan analyzed them. Read Dr. Vaughan's affidavit and letter of Dr. Haines that one-sixth grain of strychnine was found in Col. Swope's liver. The analysis not complete yet, he said, but Dr. Vaughan has reported verbally

BRIDE IS HONORED

MRS. G. K. ELLIS WAS RECIPIENT OF A SHOWER YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

HOURS WERE FROM 3 TO 6 O'CLOCK

Queen City Hive No. 7, Lady Maccabees, Arranged a Delightful Function in Honor of One of Their Members.

Mrs. G. K. Ellis, formerly Miss Mayme Knaus, was tendered a delightful china shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Knaus, 1423 East Broadway, by the members of Queen City hive No. 7, L. O. T. M., between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Fifty members of the hive and a number of outsiders, principally relatives, attended the function, which was universally pronounced one of the most enjoyable any of the guests had ever attended.

Many beautiful presents in the nature of chinaware were tendered to the new bride, among which was a beautiful salad bowl and spoon tray, presented by the members of the drill team of the hive, of which Mrs. Ellis is a member.

After the rendition of an informal program of music and games, Mrs. Ellis served refreshments of oyster salad, dill pickles, baked beans, ham sandwiches, devils' food cake, orange cake, ice cream and coffee.

Before taking their departure the guests voted Mrs. Ellis a charming entertainer.

FRANCIS IS SITTING UP

J. J. Steehn Visited Young McGinley —Home Last Evening.

Joe J. Steehn, the meat salesman, returned yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from a business visit at the state capital. While there he paid a visit to Francis McGinley, a patient at St. Mary's hospital, who had a leg broken in a coasting accident there on Sunday, January 9, when several other Sedalia young men were also injured.

The attending physician yesterday placed Francis' fractured limb in a plaster of paris cast, and he sat up immediately afterward for the first time since he was hurt. Today, the doctor stated, Francis could wheel himself around the interior of the hospital in an invalid's chair. If nothing unforeseen arises, Francis will return home early next week, but will have to use crutches for some time.

LADIES' MUSICAL CLUB

McNair Ilgenfritz, the Pianist, Was Guest of Honor.

The members of the Ladies' Musical club met for chorus practice, with Mrs. C. H. Bard in charge, at the Elks' club rooms this forenoon.

Mr. Ilgenfritz is a son of Alderman W. D. Ilgenfritz, and now lives in Chicago, he having removed there from St. Louis some months ago.

Each number was rendered exquisitely, and Mr. Ilgenfritz was the recipient of profuse compliments on his ability as a pianist.

Mr. Ilgenfritz is visiting Sedalia relatives.

MAY BE BIG STRIKE

CHICAGO LINES ARE THREATENED WITH A TIE-UP BY BROTHERHOOD.

THE VOTE REJECTS ARBITRATION

Another Conference to Be Sought With the Railroad Managers on Thursday—Trouble May Be Near at Hand.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Chicago is threatened with a railroad strike which will tie up every freight yard, and may seriously cripple road service on every line entering the city.

Negotiations which have been under way for months have reached the crucial point, and the test of strength may come by Saturday night, unless the railroad managers yield from the position they have assumed.

The poll of the men in the yard service in the Chicago district, which is being conducted by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, has shown that the men are going to have a wage increase or fight.

The offer of arbitration is being rejected almost to a man. Up to 6 o'clock last night 2500 votes had been returned and tabulated and showed 97 per cent in favor of withdrawing from the service unless a wage increase is granted.

Telegrams were yesterday sent by A. F. Whitney, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, who is handling the situation, to the chairmen and secretaries of the grievance committees of trainmen in road service, to meet him in conference today, and be prepared to issue instructions to their men. All the committeemen except those on the lines of the Grand Trunk and Baltimore & Ohio are hastening to the city.

The question whether a strike shall be called may be determined at a conference on Thursday. Vice President Whitney will today communicate with the managers and request a conference for Thursday.

If the managers continue in their refusal to grant some increase and break off negotiations, the strike may be called at any moment.

The fact that the arbitration board appointed under the Erdman law to adjust the controversy and the Illinois Central and its telegraphers refused any general wage advance has had the effect of prejudicing the trainmen against the law.

They do not want arbitration and say that the law is no longer recognized as a fair one, since the supreme court of the United States declared unconstitutional the section which prohibits the railroads from discharging men because they belong to a labor union.

"Our men feel that the railroad managers are imposing on us because we have been conservative in the past," said Vice President Whitney last night. "The managers do not seem to take our demands seriously, and that is where they are making a mistake. I have never seen our men as determined as they are on this occasion. The present wage rate in Chicago must be broken, and if it is not the crisis will come before Saturday night."

L. ROY JONES AND MISS BESSIE E. HUNT, THE LATTER OF SWEET SPRINGS.

WERE MARRIED AT CLINTON, MO.

Court Was Adjourned While the Ceremony Was Performed—Couple Will Return to Sedalia to Make Their Home.

L. Roy Jones, a well known driver for the H. E. Huston Transfer Co., residing at 243 East Saline street, and Miss Bessie E. Hunt, a popular young lady of Sweet Springs, went to Clinton last night, where this morning they secured a license to wed.

The couple applied to Judge Ogg, presiding judge of the Henry county court, to marry them, but the latter, being a little timid, appealed to Judge Amick, of the same court, to perform the ceremony.

The latter retorted that Judge Ogg being the presiding judge should have the honor, and Judge Ogg then consented to tie the knot.

Court was adjourned while the ceremony was performed, the other county judges being the witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will return here to live.

HIGH SCHOOL EXERCISES

The Program That Was Carried Out This Forenoon.

The weekly exercises of the High school were conducted in the High school auditorium this morning by Rev. D. M. Clagett, pastor of the Broadway Presbyterian church.

After the opening prayer and songs, Rev. Clagett gave a very appropriate talk to the students, showing how it is the small things that count in this life.

Following this were some very appreciated songs by Mrs. E. F. Yancey.

At the conclusion, Miss Letis, the principal, announced the Athenean play to be given Friday, February 18, and which promises to equal and possibly surpass any play ever given by that society.

HIGH PRICE BUTTER

A CONGRESSMAN SAYS TAX ON OLEOMARGARINE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR IT.

ASKS THAT LATTER BE REPEALED

Evidence Introduced Today Before the House Committee on Agriculture—How Passage of Law Was Secured.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Hearing of evidence was commenced today by the house committee on agriculture on the bill introduced by Representative Burleson, of Texas, repealing the tax on oleomargarine, which tax, he asserted, was responsible for the present high price of butter throughout the country.

Before this tax was imposed, Burleson said, there was manufactured annually 130,000,000 pounds of oleomargarine, which he characterized as a pure and wholesome food product, and which sold for from 12 to 18 cents a pound. The price of butter was 20 to 30 cents a pound.

The production of oleomargarine has been diminished 66 2-3 per cent as a result of the tax, and the price of butter has gone up from 28 cents to 60 cents a pound.

Passage of the law was secured, Burleson charged, by the National Dairy union and by a "stupendous lobby which, it is said, expended a vast sum of money."

Mr. Burleson said that he represented many associations of cattle growers, cottonseed crushers associations, National Retail Grocers' associations and western and southern chambers of commerce in demanding the repeal of the tax and the lowering of the price of butter.

WON BY THE NEGATIVES

Knights of Columbus Had Interesting Debate Last Night.

One hundred members of Sedalia council No. 831, Knights of Columbus, were present at last night's meeting to hear the debate on the question, "Resolved, That Columbus deserves more credit for discovering America than Washington does for saving it."

The affirmative was argued by Attorney W. G. Lynch and Edward Donnelly, while J. S. McGaw, grand knight of the council, and William Van Hoff took the negative.

After a heated discussion, interesting from start to finish, the question was decided in favor of the negatives.

CHANGE THE RULERS.

It is more necessary to change the rulers than to change the rules of the house. Bad rules may, inded, facilitate the passage of bad legislation, but good rules would not insure the passage of good legislation.

The disease, says Senator Gore in the National Monthly, lies deeper and the remedy must go farther. Let us defeat alike those who would adopt bad rules and enact bad laws. Let us elect for the Sixty-second congress a majority of progressive democrats and as many progressive republicans as possible.

Speaker Cannon in the house and Senator Aldrich in the senate are, indeed, the Apollyon in the path of progress, the chosen champions of privilege, the guiding geniuses of the new administration, the friends and favorites of the king, perched upon the very arms of the throne.

Roosevelt was able to stand alone, to run his administration without their overshadowing domination. He regarded their advice and example rather as a warning to shun than as a guide to follow. Mr. Taft, it seems, surrendered at the first summons.

Roosevelt, in his way, was the friend of progress and the foe of special privilege. The new president is carrying out the policies of the ex-president—on a stretcher. The people may yet prefer the strenuosity of Roosevelt to the sinuosity of Taft. They may yet conclude that the hands are the hands of Esau, but the voice is Jacob's voice."

If rumor speaks truth, the war against progress and the progressives is to be fought under a black flag—"obedience or the bowstring" was the sultan's decree. Those who bow the knee are to enjoy the smiles of favor. Those who stand erect are to incur "the frown of offended majesty."

Is free thought to be tethered and free speech to be silenced? Must the sworn representatives of the people barter principles for patronage and patriotism for pie? Must they surrender the principles of a lifetime for the high privilege of appointing a fourth postmaster at Skedunk, or a minister plenipotentiary to the court of Dahomy?

Rather than this, it seems to us, democrats should give and and comfort to republican progressives in republican districts, who voted against the speaker, against his rules, against the tariff and against the ship subsidy, to those who have "kept the faith" and who keep the faith. Their heads should not be carried in a charger merely because by refusing to faun they failed to thrive. They should not be suffered to suffer for conscience's sake.

The New York Sun is skeptical about the sale of meats abroad at lower prices than those which the beef trust gets at home. It wonders "why, if there is not an excess of production over consumption, the trusts should go abroad to get a lower price for their foodstuffs?" The Sun is unsophisticated. The trust policy is to supply the domestic market with all it will take at a high price, and as much more will be sold abroad as can be marketed at a profit.

It cost James J. Storrow $102,250 "for merely personal expenses" in his campaign for the Boston mayoralty, as a reformer. It is quite possible this lavish use of money may have contributed to his defeat. Sometimes men overreach themselves by the assumption that they can get whatever they desire by money inducement.

The International Asbestos association has been organized in New York and it controls 90 per cent of the asbestos business of the country. Here is a trust that seems to be preparing for the hereafter. It wouldn't make much difference whether this is a good or a bad trust.

With tariff wars, as with other wars, the first consideration is whether they are necessary for the maintenance of national honor and national rights. If not, they are as wicked as other causeless wars.

In Cincinnati they are making it warm for the street car magnates because the magnates failed to make it warm in the cars.

Every girl who sets her cap for a man doesn't succeed in persuading him to buy her hats forever afterwards.

It is a mistake to suppose that the man with $1,000,000 is a million times happier than the man with one dollar.

There is so much room for improvement in many people that they will probably never be able to use it all up.

Most men want the best of wives, but after a man is married he should be satisfied to get the best of a wife.

The people who make up their minds to boycott the beef trust are evidently not going to beef about it.

Adam and Eve were doubly unfortunate in not being able to blame their downfall on heredity.

It is the unexpected that happens, and even then there is always some one to say "I told you so."

It is a comforting thought to every man who can always find some fellow who is worse than he is.

One half of the world is quite satisfied that the other half doesn't know how it lives.

The beauty about a thirst for knowledge is that it leaves no next morning hang-over.

Deafness cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Hard-Won Harvests.

Cultivation of the soil under a climate like curs invariably partakes of the nature of a gamble. The manufacturer, as a rule, can calculate the risks he has to run, and, if he is an adept, avoid them. Not so the farmer. The Burning Question

Is the money question. It's on most people's minds. Have you ever given it a thought? What are you doing with your savings? Letting it go each week with nothing to show for it? You should put a stop to that at once by opening a saving account with us. One dollar will start you; you can then add to or withdraw from, at any time, without notice.

THE THIRD HOUSE

To the Democrat-Sentinel.

I have naught to say against John A. Collins, Lee Looney, Dr. W. J. Ferguson, W. J. Crawford, E. G. Cassidy or Dr. E. F. Yancey in connection with the democratic nomination for mayor at the April election. As the nominee of the party of Thomas Jefferson I could cheerfully vote for either of these gentlemen were he named to head the democratic ticket this spring. However, I have in my mind's eye a gentleman who as the nominee of the party I believe would make a much better race than either of the gentlemen named above in connection with the honor.

I refer to Judge O. E. Parsons, who for two terms served most creditably as probate judge of Pettis county. I have known Judge Parsons intimately for many years. I was among the first to welcome him to the Queen of the Prairies when he came here from the Empire state to enter the employ of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad.

He first ran a freight train, but it was not long until his ability was recognized and he was promoted to a passenger run. Then came the accident at Clinton that resulted in the amputation of one of his arms. This necessitated his retirement from the railway service.

When nominated by the democracy for judge of the probate court, the railroad men of Sedalia, without regard to party lines, rallied to his support and he was elected. A better judge of probate never sat within the confines of this bailiwick, and it was not surprising that he was renominated and re-elected.

Judge Parsons is a property owner and deeply interested in the welfare of the city. He well knows its needs and would know how to judiciously expend the revenue at the city's command. He is progressive in the truest sense of the word, but at the same time he is conservative. He is for law enforcement in all the walks of life. In short, he is a genial, polished, Christian gentleman, and if his party should see proper to honor him with the nomination for mayor this spring I confidently believe he would be elected by a majority of several hundred, no matter whether he be pitted against Henry W. Meuschke, A. W. McKenzie, E. R. Andler, W. D. Ilgenfritz or J. L. Babcock, all of whom have been mentioned in connection with the republican nomination for the mayoralty.

You may cavass the town, rake it with a fine-tooth comb if you care to, but a more available candidate than "Ed" Parsons it would be impossible to unearth.—Railroader.

Multiplex Telegraphy.

C. B. Stearns of Boston was the first man to discover how to send two messages over the same wire, but by his method the two messages could not be sent in the same direction. A year later, in 1873, T. A. Edison discovered how to send more than one message in the same direction, later increasing the number.

Mrs. H. H. Heimsoth and little daughter, of Sedalia, came out on the noon train Sunday for a visit with her son, Edwin, who is bedfast with the measles.

Something like thirty cases of measles are reported in one school district east of here.

Miss Effie Pierce visited from Thursday until Saturday with Mora friends. She will preach only once more at Point Pleasant, the first Sunday in March, before conference. Make it a point to hear her on this date.

Mr. Weber, of Sweet Springs; Herman Renken and family, of Houstonia, and Mr. Evers, of Sedalia, came out on the noon train Sunday.

Miss Pauline Keuck was an incoming passenger on the noon train Sunday for a visit with her mother and sister.

It is certainly with sorrow that we try to chronicle a few lines in regard to the death of one of our best citizens, which occurred Saturday morning. Martin Renkin was known to nearly everybody in this section, and to know him was to be his friend. While he will be greatly missed as a husband and father, I doubt if there is another man in this whole community that will be missed by the public in general as much as Mr. Renkin will be missed. He owned a fine farm four miles northeast of here that is probably worth $50,000. He also had on hand at the time of his death something like 200 head of cattle, and it was while on duty feeding these that he met with the fatal accident. We can hardly express in words the sympathy we have for the bereaved wife and children in this, the trying time of their life.

LaGrippe pains that pervade the entire system, la grippe coughs that rack and strain, are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar. Is mildly laxative, safe and certain in results.—Arlington Pharmacy.

Dyspepsia, Stomach Gas, Heartburn, Headache and all Distress Vanishes After Taking a Little Diapepsin, You Feel Fine.

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapepsin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat.

Eat what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of Indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour risings, Belching, Gas on Stomach, Heartburn, Headaches from stomach, Nausea, Bad Breath, Water Brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead, or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there be no Indigestion or Sleepless nights or Headache or Stomach misery all the next day; and, besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh.

Pape's Diapepsin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. There is nothing better for Gas on the Stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a Stomach Headache.

You couldn't keep a handier or more useful article in the house.

GRAY HAIRS BANISHED

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of it souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by W. E. Bard Drug Co.

PUGNACITY OF EAGLE OWLS

Many Cases on Record in Which They Have Made Attacks on Human Beings.

On his way home one evening last October from Karbenning railway station, in central Sweden, a young man when passing through a small wood was vigorously attacked by an eagle owl, relates a writer in The Field. Alighting on his shoulder, the bird inflicted some severe wounds with its powerful beak and claws, and when beaten off it carried off his cap in token of victory.

Some years ago several similar attacks by eagle owls occurred during the summer months in the province of Vester Gotland, in one of which an unfortunate old man lost an eye.

A correspondent of the Swedish periodical Fran Skog och Sio states that in the part of Vermeland to which he belongs there was an eagle owl which became well known for its repeated attacks on human beings who chanced to come near its abode. While cutting timber one day a man was assailed by the bird, which drove its claws into the upper part of his body.

He managed to get rid of it, but it at once came on again, when a blow from his ax put an end to its further attentions. A peasant in the parish of Stammar, Nerike, had a similar experience in April last. He was fetching water from a lake close by his house when an eagle owl suddenly flew at him. A kick made it retire a few yards, when it came in contact with the fence. This seemed to irritate it, for it returned to the attack, but the man seized it by the neck, tucked it under his arm and carried it off home.

On the way the owl's mate kept flying around in unpleasantly close proximity. Ultimately the captor had to dispatch his prisoner, his wife and children being much scared at its formidable aspect.

SEDALIA MISSIONS

LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT PRESENTED AND ENDORSED.

LOCAL COMMITTEE IS ORGANIZED

Meeting Was Held at First Christian Church Last Night—Committee Will Meet at 12:15 O'clock Thursday Afternoon.

One of the most enthusiastic men's meetings ever held in Sedalia was that at the First Christian church last evening. One hundred and twenty-five of the very best men of the city sat at a banquet and discussed the Laymen's Missionary movement. This is an undenominational movement of all the Protestants of the country.

The banquet was served by the ladies of the church where the meeting was held. This was a well prepared as well as a well served repast. The men, with their usual good judgment of good things to eat, thoroughly enjoyed everything that was set before them.

The guests represented the laymen of the various churches of the city. The meeting was called to order by Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer, and Judge Louis Hoffman was unanimously chosen as the chairman and toastmaster The selection of the judge was one of the happy events of the meeting. and those present very soon found that they had made no mistake in bestowing the honor on Mr. Hoffman. In taking the chair the gentleman found it very hard to restrain himself from making a long speech, as he said this was a subject that was very close to his own heart; but in his usual genial way the judge presented the objects of the meeting in well chosen words.

Rev. W. F. Sheridan, D. D., of Kansas City, was introduced and was heartily greeted with a round of applause. He outlined the movement from its birth up to the present time, telling of many great things that had already been accomplished both in this country and in England. He showed that the movement was a band of men organized to aid in the work of the church. The organization collected no money, took no pledges whatever, but its object was to stimulate the work that is already being carried on by the various church agencies and boards by enlisting the men.

Mr. Guy M. Withers, a business man of Kansas City, was then introduced. He said in part: "Missions is a man's job. Why not? It is the hardest of work and attended by the most trying of difficulties."

He asked why we had turned this work over almost entirely to the ladies of the churches. If the ladies need the Lord Jesus in their work how much more does the business man need Him at his arduous tasks, at his desk, in the shops and other places? If we were to go to war with the Chinese, would we send our women to the front? No. Then, why not also have men in the front of the movement to take the blessed Gospel to those who need a Savior?

Mr. Withers told of the very great leaders in the world's work that were already deeply interested in the matter, and of the things that had been started and were being carried out. He then presented the plan of organization and asked that a local committee be named to co operate in this great movement.

After a general discussion of the plans and objects and indorsement of the work, the meeting unanimously elected Judge Louis Hoffman as the chairman of the local committee. In making up the personnel of the committee it was decided that one layman from each of the churches should be named, and that each local pastor should also be on this committee.

After a three minutes' recess, in which each of the church representatives held a brief conference and selected their own man, the meeting was again called to order and the following named were announced as the committeemen:

Broadway Presbyterian church—John Montgomery, jr.

First M. E. church—E. E. Johnston.

First Congregational church—C. E. West.

First Christian church—W. W. Herold.

Central Presbyterian church—Gordon Norris.

First Baptist church—John H. Piper.

East Sedalia Baptist church—W. O Stanley.

Calvary Episcopal church—D. H. Smith.

East Broadway Christian church—G. M. Hoadley.

Epworth M. E. church—S. G. Whipp.

Fifth Street M. E. church—S. R. Payne.

Trinity English Lutheran church—To be appointed.

Second Congregational church—To be appointed.

German M. E. church—To be appointed.

Dr. Sheridan then presented the matter of the coming convention of the movement. The convention is to be held in Kansas City on Feb. 23-26 and is one of seventy-five that are being held all over the country. A number of prominent speakers are making a tour of these various conventions, and it is already assured that the program will be the very best. A large number of the business men of Sedalia have signed credentials for this meeting and a number of others will be added in a few days.

One feature of the Kansas City meeting will be a banquet, which will be spread in the big Convention hall. Plates will be laid for 2,200 men. No ladies will be admitted.

Chairman Hoffman announced a meeting of the local committee for Thursday noon, at 12:15, at the dinner table at Rembaugh's.

The meeting adjourned after singing a couple of verses of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and prayer by Rev. Harod Cooper, of the First Congregational church.

The Sedalia committee is indebted to the Kansas City men for their services, which they tendered without any cost whatsoever. These men pay their own expenses on these trips and are doing what they can to aid in the movement.

that poison was found in Col. Swope's stomach. Amount not determined. Said Col. Swope's brain showed no signs of hemorrhage.

Alleged Son's Story Told.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Feb. 9.—Elmer Caryall Swope, of this city, who says he is a son of the late Col. Thomas H. Swope, told some details last night of the contentions upon which he will base a fight for the Swope millions. He has retained a lawyer, and says that Col. Swope was married before the civil war to Miss Caryall, a southern girl, from whom he was separated when the war came on. Six months after the separation the son, Elmer Caryall Swope, was born, according to the story the lawyer will attempt to prove. The mother died of a broken heart, and when the war ended Col. Swope returned to his West Virginia home to be told of the death of his young wife, but he was never told of the birth of the son, the lawyer says will be shown.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia. heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—

The mind's eye shows us love as the oasis in the Sahara of life; so, together, two set out to seek the haven of rest in the great journey. Childhood's Right to Happiness.

Many children of the most pious people in every community turn out badly because their parents' narrow notions drive them forth into the wilderness of life. An unhappy childhood is the fate of too many children of otherwise good parents, because of their antipathy to amusements which may be innocent enough in themselves under favorable environments.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.
Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.
Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.
The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.
The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

TABLE EXPENSE

Is a mighty important question in every household—it's one that needs serious thought.

Most things bought for the house last a long time, and it usually pays to look at the quality more than the price.

In groceries, as in the other things, quality counts as much as price. This can easily be proven, by close watch upon the table expense for a month.

Good grades of groceries make little waste, and the waste is worth more consideration than an occasional extra penny or two.

Here is a selection of staple goods, at prices that are actual economy.

When the Root Juice people were here hundreds of people flocked to the drug store to see them and get some of the great remedy, and after they left the great sale of the remedy continued because of the many remarkable cures it made. Many names of people living in this locality who were cured by taking a few bottles of the Root Juice were published in this paper. The remedy is such a great health-promoting agent that it creates great excitement in every city in which it is introduced. Mr. Albert Timlick, of Cantrell, Ill., wrote and said: "For a number of years I suffered with a severe stomach trouble and tried many kinds of medicine but none did me any good. I was almost dead when I started on my first bottle of Root Juice, but as soon as I took three or four doses I began to feel better. Four bottles of the Juice made a complete cure of my troubles I now have a good appetite and can eat anything I want Before I took Root Juice I could not digest the lightest food. It would sour on my stomach and I would bloat fearfully. I digest everything I eat now. It has certainy worked wonders for me.' AMUSEMENTS

Alfred Moore, the burly Police Captain in Charles Klein's new play, "The Third Degree," which will be presented at Wood's opera house Thursday evening, February 10, is compiling a little book exclusively for follower of stage folk, in which he enumerates the fads of actors and the things carried by them on the road, most of which were unheard of in the days of yore, when the actor's trunk consisted of a bandanna handkerchief or a small box.

Mr. Moore's little book will doubtless prove a valuable acquisition to stage lore, as it has been compiled during the past few years and is personal, authentic and broad.

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 312.

Hundreds of Mayors Are Now Praising No-Saloon Towns.

Mayor's Office,
Xenia, Ohio,
W. F. Brennan, Mayor.

Dear Sir:—Your letter asking about our city since voting dry, has reached me. Perhaps NO city has had a better chance to judge the effects both ways as we have had. In 1900 we had 33 saloons, with all their dependencies. It was a common thing to see children enter these places and drink over the bar. Open houses of gambling, houses of ill repute, and slot machines, etc., where children could easily get a start downward. The saloons were closed and since then the moral tone of our city has changed wonderfully. Our police records prove this. In ten months WET we had 200 arrests for drunkenness and during the same period DRY we had 35, and most of these had purchased their liquor outside of town and were arrested as soon as they stepped off the cars. During ten WET months we had 555 arrests and the same length of time DRY we had 196, a difference of 360. We had a population when we voted dry of 8,600, and the beginning of 1910 we had 12,000 population. There is not a single business room for rent, and the business men say that their business was never better, and a very remarkable increase over WET times. Hutchison and Gibson, one of the largest dry goods firms, has given out the statement that they have been in business FORTY years, and that their business has been much better since the saloons closed, and they attribute it to that fact.

Respectfully yours,
Wm. L. Brennan, Mayor.
Xenia, Ohio.

Does it seem possible that the mayor of ANY city would fail to investigate such improvements as these in a city, and then not stand openly and above board for such improvement. We simply cannot imagine such neglect of duty, when it would mean so much to the majority of the citizens of that city.

THE MICROSCOPE

Proves That Parasites Cause Hair Loss.

Nine-tenths of the diseases of the scalp and hair are caused by parasitic germs. The importance of this discovery by Professor Unna, of the Charity Hospital, Hamburg, Germany, can not be over-estimated. It explains why ordinary hair preparations, even of the most expensive character, fail to cure dandruff; because they do not, and they can not kill the dandruff germ. The only hair preparation in the world that positively destroys the dandruff parasites that burrow up the scalp into scales called scurf or dandruff, is Newbro's Herpicide. In addition to its destroying the dandruff germ Herpicide is also a delightful hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

CHINKS NEW YEAR

CHINAMEN ALL OVER THE WIDE WORLD ARE CELEBRATING THE EVENT TODAY.

GREAT TIMES IN NEW YORK CITY

One Good Thing About the "Heathen" Is That They Pay Every Debt They Owe Before the New Year Is Ushered In.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

New York, Feb. 9.—Chinatown, somewhat depopulated as a result of the gambling raids and the Sigel murder case, but still in the ring and able to make a noise like a boiler foundry with delirium tremens, today gave itself up to the joyous job of welcoming the glad new year of Confucius 2,461.

As a result the white residents of Mott street and the others sections of the Chinese portion of town, are wearing cotton in their ears and keeping their eyes open for a new tong feud to start under cover of the celebration.

All Mott street is gay. Great yellow flags are everywhere, with Chinese dragons, showing their shapes on the yellow billows of the Chinese colors.

Bombs are bursting, rockets are flaring, firecrackers are sputtering, chop suey joints are crowded to the limit, and in the Joss house more incense is being burned and more prayers said than ever before in its history.

All the elite of Chinatown is out. The Vanderbilts, the Astors, the Stuyvesant Fishes, all those yellow-skinned aristocrats of Mott street are making New Year calls. And it sounds to beat any reception that was ever held for ladies only on Fifth avenue.

"Who's a guy?" is what the Chinaman always says instead of "Prosit" or "Gesundheit." At least, that's what it sounds like, and it means the same thing. It means "You're a good old dog, and I'm to buy the next."

Chinamen pay all their debts New Year's. It is a disgrace to open the year owing any man anything. This is one of the most startling evidences of their unfitness and need of the Gospel.

Saturday will be ladies' day in Chinatown. Then all the small-footed ladies, with their bright little almond eyes, will make their annual calls upon friends.

The calling that is being done is of a ceremonial nature. The visitor bows himself in, apologizing for having brought his putrid presence before the august body of the illustrious holder of the house, which has demeaned itself sufficiently to open its doors to such a worm as he, and trusts the distinguished inhabitants thereof will permit an outcast and bit of human scum like himself to wish them all a happy New Year.

Then the host replies that he and his underling family bow themselves to kiss the feet of the most mighty and distinguished one, who has stooped from his high estate that he might merely notice such creeping things of the earth as he and his family, and he trusts the visitor will condescend to still furthr demean himself by taking a chair in their miserable abode and try to be as far from miserable as he possibly can in such a deplorable place.

Having got this off their systems, the Chinamen get together. The cute little wicker-covered bottle is brought out, everybody says: "Who's a guy?" and down it goes, without even a chaser. Tobasco sauce is cold and chill aongside that drink. But it never makes a Chinaman bat an eye.

MILLIONS TO QUIT MEAT

Sanction of Religion With Boycott Is the Cause.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel

New York, Feb. 9.—With the beginning of Lent today, it is expected that many millions of Americans will join in inaugurating a period of absolute fasting, so far as meat is concerned, and the outlook for the packers is but a gloomy one.

With the sanction of religion added to the economic appeal, the anti-meat eaters consider the victory already as good as won, and they predict that by Easter all kinds of meat will be selling at little more than half the prices recently charged.

Reports from all over the country today appear to confirm this view.

YOUNG HAS RANCH BUG

Life Among the Kind-Faced Cows Looks Good to Him.

Portalnd, Ore., Feb. 9.—Denton T. Young, better known as "Cy," the veteran pitcher of the Cleveland American league team, is about to follow the footsteps of Fielder Jones and become an Oregon rancher.

Young arrived here Sunday and announced that he was on his way to visit his brother, who is a rancher and stock raiser at Elgin, Ore.

He says that his brother has been ambition to have him inspect some lands near Elgin with a view to purchasing, and to Fielder Jones "Cy" admitted that he would likely make Oregon his home as soon as he is through with baseball.

Middletown, the Model Village.

Middl-town, Mo., Feb. 9.—Middletown lays claim to being a model village. Even though no railroad has yet penetrated its midst and a few other advantages are only noticeable by their absence, it nevertheless glories in its spotless name. There is not a booze joint in existence, crap shooters are unheard of and there is nothing of an immoral nature to be found within the limits of the town.

A Farewell Reception.

After conferring the three degrees on a class of eight candidates at last night's meeting, Sedalia lodge No. 25, I. O. O. F., made arrangements for a "farewell" reception to be given in the old lodge hall on March 1. The program will be select and refreshments will be served.

HERO OF THE HOUR

MAKES POSSIBLE A MATERIAL REDUCTION IN HOUSEHOLD EXPENSES.

FIRELESS COOKER NOW POPULAR

Makes Palatable the Cheaper Cuts of Meat and Has Succeeded the Boycott in Many Chicago Homes.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Already the fireless cooker has succeeded the boycott for first honors in reducing the household meat bills of Chicagoans, the use of chuck, plate, round and other cheap cuts of meat being made possible by this new humble hero of the hour.

The discovery that about one-quarter of the meat of the steer has to sell for half the money for the whole animal set the boycotters to thinking that porterhouse steak is not all that is edible in a beef.

Then appeared the fireless cooker, whether patented or home-made out of a cracker box lined with newspapers, and meat again entered the boycotter's diet, not the highest priced cuts, but others that have an equal amount of nutriment and are quite as appetizing when thoroughly cooked.

That is where the heat-insulated fireless cookers moved up front for recognition and laurels. Scientific tests proved that meats brought to a boiling point and then set in the "fireless" gained in flavor, lost almost nothing in weight and were cooked for one-tenth the amount of fuel required in the old way.

One committee of investigation to the Swift & Co. plant followed the distribution of cuts of a beef weighing 694 pounds dressed, and reported the prices and proceeds to be:

Cuts	Weight Lbs.	Price Per lb	Per cent of Total	Amt
Ribs	66	17c	9.51	$11.22
Loins	119	19½c	17.15	23.20
Rounds	164	8c	23.63	13.12
Chucks	170	7c	24.50	11.90
Plates	86	5½c	12.39	4.73
Shanks	29	4½c	4.18	1.31
Flanks	27	5½c	3.89	1.48
Suet	28	10c	4.03	2.80
Trim'gs	5	4½c	.72	.23
	694		100	$69.99

"From the foregoing," says the report, "can plainly be seen the problem and the remedy. Extend the use of the cheaper cuts of meat."

Going to Keep Cool.

Silex, Mo., Feb. 9—Residents of Silex will have an opportunity to keep cool this summer, as a refrigerating plant is being installed here, which will furnish five tons of ice every twenty-four hours if desired. A local poultry and produce company concluded that it would be cheaper and better to have a plant than to depend on outside sources for cooling material. The plant will enable the company to handle dressed poultry during the entire year.

Hog Thieves at Clarksville?

Clarksville, Mo., Feb. 9.—Several farmers near here report the loss of hogs recently. There are good indications that an organized band of thieves is at work in this part of Pike county. Efforts are being made to locate the evil doers.

EGGS IN STORAGE

STATEMENT THAT THERE ARE 36,000,000 IN JERSEY CITY IS DOUBTED.

ARE ONLY 30,000,000 IN CHICAGO

Said the Actual Cost of the Eggs on Reaching the Lakeside City Is 25 Cents a Dozen—Retail at 30 Cents.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Commission men of Chicago who make a specialty of eggs doubt the statement made in Jersey City that there are 36,000,000 eggs held in one storage house there, incidentally throwing additional light on the "high living" question.

Chicago egg dealers say that there are usually more eggs in storage in this city than anywhere else in the country, and they can find only 30,000,000 in all the cold storage houses here.

This is a sufficient number to keep the city supplied for not longer than ten days, and it is an indication of how the great American hen has been soldiering. There are approximately 75,000 cases in cold storage, containing 30 dozens, or 360 eggs each.

The average daily demand for Chicago use, for fresh and storage eggs combined, is 10,000 cases. When the supply of fresh eggs is slack the demand for the storage variety increases, and vice versa.

Commission men insist that there is more money in handling fresh eggs than those in storage, and that if the price continues to remain around the 40 cent mark the hen should be blamed.

Eggs purchased in the summer and fall are figured to cost the Chicago dealer 22c a dozen by the time they reach the city. With storage charges, the cost of candling and the losses through breakage, etc., added, the total actual cost is about 25 cents per dozen.

This means that the consumer must pay from 28 to 30 cents per dozen. If the hens should suddenly become energetic and a big supply of fresh eggs dumped on the market, the result would be that fresh eggs would sell at a lower figure than the actual cost of the storage variety.

Practically all of the eggs in cold storage are owned by western shippers and producers, and they are put in storage at a time when the supply of fresh eggs is so large all of it cannot be sold.

Fine! An Adjustable Bed.

Chillicothe, Mo., Feb. 9—More fame has come to Chillicothe in the shape of an inventor of an adjustable bed. E. J. Robinson is the genius. He has been busy making plans to place his beds on the market ever since he was granted a patent on his invention. The bed is so constructed that it may be raised, lowered or changed most any way with very little effort. Physicians state that it will fill a long felt want.

A Pleasant Surprise Party.

A surprise party was given at the home of E. L. Comer, 1412 East Fourth street, last Saturday night for their daughter, Lola Chism. Music and games whiled away the time, and refreshments were served.

Prices 65 Years Ago.

Palmyra, Mo., Feb. 9.—Although the early settlers had to contend with many hardships and privations, there were some compensations, or at least it would seem so today, in the fact that they could get necessities of life at prices which seem almost unbelievable at the present time.

Old bills found by John J. Suter while going through some papers which belonged to his father show prices which were paid during the winter of 1842-43. According to these bills a sack of salt sold for $2, butter was 6½ cents a pound, lard 3½ cents, bacon 3 cents a pound, beef 3 cents, and other things in proportion.

Secod Semester Begins.

Columbia, Mo., Feb. 9.—The second semester began at the University of Missouri this morning. Usually classes have begun work the Monday following the mid-year examinations, but this year President Hill granted the students a two-days' vacation before beginning regular work again.

Bad Time to Lose It.

A third attempt to burn the Fettis county poor house was made recently. "The public will resent this," says a St. Louis newspaper, "for if the meat barons are not suppressed we shall need all the poorhouses we have."

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 9.—Cases against Moreau P. Estes and Albert S. Williams, vice president and president, respectively, of the City Savings bank, are set for trial in the criminal court today.

The indictments charge them with receiving deposits into an insolvent bank, knowing it to be insolvent.

ADVANTAGES OF THE FIRELESS COOKER OVER THE USUAL METHOD

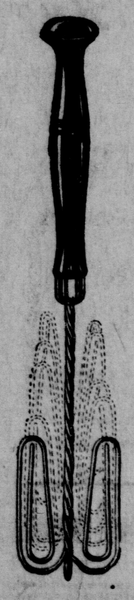

Retains all the natural juices of meats, vegetables, etc. Renders food more nutritious and palatable. Requires only about one-fifth the time. Prevents scorching, drying up or burning. Never overcooks or spoils the food. Renders all food much more digestable. Promotes good health and good temper. Prevents the commingling of flavors. Cooks cabbage, onions, etc, entirely without odor. Gives you leisure for calling, shopping, taking a nap, etc. Turns Sunday dinners from drudgery to delight. Prevents worry if husband or guests are late. Does away with kitchen heat. Cooks for breakfast over night. Physicians say "any dyspeptic's best friend." Fireless Cookers and the art of fireless cooking are old, having been used in Norway and the old world ages ago the only difference is that our Cooker is built scientifically for all purposes. In operation this wonderful invention is simplicity itself. You simply prepare the food to be cooked in the regular way—then immediately transfer to the Cooker, cover tightly, add the insulated covering—drop the lid and let the Cooker do the rest. In a few hours remove the cover and serve the boiling hot—perfectly cooked and with a taste that will prove surprising.

THE STORY OF THE SERVANT IN THE HOUSE

BOB, THE DRAIN MAN

A sweet and divinely beautiful little story of a father's love for his lost girl is told in "The Servant in the House," the famous play which is to be seen here at Wood's opera house, Saturday, February 12.

In dealing with the larger phases of this moving play, the simple, unaffected story of how the Drain-Man, the father of lowly calling, yearns for his orphaned girl, of how this young girl, early placed in richer hands, likewise yearns for a father's love, seems too often to have been lost to view in comments on the play.

Excerpts from the play tell the story. Briefly, the father, who was early overtaken by the misfortune of poverty which cost him his beloved wife and caused him to place his baby girl in the care of his preacher brother, comes this morning of an early English spring, many years later, to claim his girl. His heart is eating itself out in loneliness and in revolt at a social fabric which makes him poor and others rich.

In his brother's house, he meets Manson, representative of the spirit of love and gentleness serving there in the guise of a butler, serving as the Master might have served, seeking to bring peace to troubled hearts.

Manson leads the Drain-Man to talk of his past.

You were going to say something about your little girl's mother. I wonder whether they are anything alike?

The Drain-Man: That's wot I come to see.

She 'ad her mother's nose when she was a biby—'an 'er eyes. She was the very spit-far as a biby could be.

Manson: And your brother, Joshua. What of him? Where is he now?

The Drain-Man: I don't know—gone to pot, like me. P'r'aps eatin' 'is heart out, same as I am, at the base ingratitood o' the world.

Later, Manson, finding that Mary, the little girl, does not know her father by sight, and that her heart is aching for a father's love, adroitly advises her to "wish" as hard as she can for her father, meaning to see that both their wishes come true.

Meanwhile, the Drain-Man, who has found a job in his line to do for the house, meets her dressed in his rough, soiled working clothes, and she takes him for a sneak thief.

That his own child should not only not know him, but mistake him so, cuts him to the quick, and he sobs: Oh, my Gawd, my Gawd!

Mary: Of course if—if you're sorry, that makes a difference. Being sorry makes a lot of difference. Doesn't it? she queries, naively.

Drain-Man: Yus. A fat lot.

Mary: Only you must never give way to such a wicked temptation again. Oh, don't cry!

Then, in telling her that he is not a thief, he also explains why she mistook him for one.

I know you don't like my mug. It ain't much of a mug to look at, is it? Sort of a physog for a thief, eh? See them lines—want to know what them stand for? That's drink, an' starvation, an' 'ard work, an' a damned lonely life.

Mary: Do you know, I'd like to do you some good.

Drain Man: You're the only person in the world I'd—I'd like to see try.

Then Mary explains that if he wishes for something very bad, even though it be as impossible as a fairy tale, it will come true. She touches him infinitely by declaring that she is wishing for her father, a father that must be much, much better than anybody else.

The Drain Man delights her by saying, for his part, that he is wishing for his little daughter whom he lost long ago. But, seeing how she looks for a father that is such a wonderful man, he gives up any thought of telling her who he is. He is ashamed of his poverty and of his roughness, forming such a bitter contrast with her sweet girlhood. He even refuses to tell her what is his name, saying:

I got no name worth speakin' on, miss; I'm—just the bloke wot's lookin' arter the drains.

In the course of the play, when the subtle influence of the wonder-working Manson comes to bear, the vicar brother quarrels wtih his wife because she refuses to tell Mary who her father is. The vicar, conscience-stricken, feels the great injustice to the rightful father.

Enter Mary, with the thought of her father uppermost, wondering what kind of a man he can be.

I thought of all the good and noble men I had ever seen or heard of in my life; but still—that wasn't quite like a father, was it? I thought a father must be much, much better than anything else in the world. He must be brave, he must be beautiful, he must be good! I kept on saying it over and over to myself, like a song. That's true of fathers, isn't it, uncle?

Vicar: A father ought to be all these things.

As the lines of this marvelous play tighten and draw toward the close, the Drain Man, who has, in the meanwhile gone to clean the house drains, burst in to tell what a wonderful pile of muck he has found, near all the muck o the world. He startles the others by telling of his work, gains their admiration. His work is honest, and he is courageous, proud of his work. To them all comes spiritual regeneration, the leaven of love has done its work. Without anyone telling her, Mary runs to her father. She knows him because, "you are brave, because you are very beautiful, because you are good."

And Manson, the servant in this house, smiles a smile of a love divine.

BREAK UP THAT COLD IN A DAY

You can stop a cough or a cold as if by magic by just breathing soothing, healing Hyomei over the sore, raw and inflamed membrane.

This is from a man who knows.

"Mrs. Mager and myself have used your inhaler faithfully whenever needed and it has always given instant relief and saved us from many severe colds.

The above is voluntarily given and if in your estimation its use as a testimonial would help to get others to use it, I will gladly have you do so, as we consider it a wonderful discovery and recommend it whenever opportunity presents itself." F. W. Mager, Contracting Freight Agent, C. H. & D. Ry. Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. Oct. 22, 1909.

Don't fool with stomach nostrums; try magical Hyomei at once; it relieves a stuffed up head in two minutes.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including inhaler and one bottle of Hyomei, costs only $1.00 at druggists everywhere and at W. E. Bard Drug Co. It is guaranteed to cure catarrh, croup, coughs, colds, sore throat and bronchitis or money back. Extra bottles of Hyomei, if afterward needed, costs but 50 cents.

New Cemetery Needed.

Platte City, Mo., Feb. 9.—Platte City is puzzled to know just what is to be done in the way of securing a new cemetery. The old one is entirely filled, but it is stated that the city has no authority to purchase land for burial purposes and only holds control of the ground that has been used by virtue of an agreement with the county court. Some action will probably be taken in the near future to settle the matter.

A Clean Man

Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and think clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

SPRUNG SURPRISE

A DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL FUNCTION AT MRS. H. KNIGHT'S HOME LAST NIGHT.

ANNOUNCED A COMING MARRIAGE

That of Miss Leona McVey to Mr. F. C. Hoyt, of Cincinnati—Was Also Eighth Wedding Anniversary of the Hostess.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Mrs. Horace Knight very affably entertained thirty lady friends at whist at her home, 709 West Fifth street, Tuesday night, the event being in honor of a bride-to-be. also to announce an approaching marriage and to celebrate the hostess' wedding anniversary.

The bride-to-be is Miss Christine Spencer, whose marriage to Lee Gentry was announced in last Sunday's Democrat-Sentinel.

The announcement was that of Frank Corliss Hoyt, a former Sedalian, now of Cincinnati, O., to Miss Leona McVey.

The wedding anniversary was that of Mrs. Knight, whose marriage to Mr. Knight occurred in Philadelphia, Pa., eight years ago Tuesday.

The early part of the evening was devoted to whist playing, the prize, a beautiful pin, being won by Miss Bess Doyle, while to Miss Spencer was awarded a bride's beautiful picture.

After distributing the prizes, the hostess very modestly announced a surprise to be sprung, and quietly informed the guests of the approaching marriage of Mr. Hoyt to Miss McVey, the date to be announced later.

The announcement came as a complete surprise to the guests present, for not the slightest intimation had been given of the hostess' intention in that line, and after extending congratulations to Miss McVey, the latter announced the third part of the celebration, that of Mrs. Knight's wedding anniversary.

The function, which had been quietly arranged, was not concluded until a late hour, at which time the hostess served dainty refreshments, following which the guests took their departure, voting Mrs. Knight one of the most clever entertainers in the Queen City's social list.

The marriage of Mr. Hoyt and Miss McVey will be solemnized at Columbia, where the bride elect now resides.

Mr. Hoyt formerly lived here, at which time he was connected with the F. & P. Lighting System, later being promoted and transferred to Cincinnati, O., where he is at present located. He is a son of the Rev. Dr. F. C. Hoyt, of Cleveland, O., and is a young man of sterling worth and integrity.

Miss McVey, it can sincerely be said, is one of the most popular ladies who has made Sedalia her home. A decided blonde and endowed with a lovely disposition, coupled with culture and refinement, Miss McVey has a wide circle of acquaintances, all of whom are her friends, and the news of her approaching marriage will be cheerfully received by all. The Democrat-Sentinel happily joins in extending congratulations.

Was Tendered at the Church Parlors Last Night.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The Rev. Paul Stoerker, who last month succeeded the Rev. Otto Press as pastor of Emmanuel German Evangelical church, and wife, were last night tendered a delightful reception at the church parlors, there being some 300 ladies and gentlemen in attendance.

There was no set program, to extend a royal welcome to the popular young divine and his esteemed wife being the sole object, and splendidly did they succeed.

Brandt's orchestra furnished delightful music during the evening, social converse being interspersed between the selections.

Refreshments of sandwiches, pickles, coffee and cake were served, and the function proved to be one of the most enjoyable in the history of the church.

MRS. DOHERTY ILL

SEDALIA LADY WAS SEIZED EN ROUTE TO TEXAS TO VISIT THREE SISTERS.

DOWN WITH PLEURO-PNEUMONIA

Letter Received Today Says Her Condition Is Serious—She Is Employed as Saleslady at Bondi's Store.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The many friends of Mrs. Rose Doherty, in charge of the suit department of Bondi Bros. & Co., will regret to know that she is very ill with pleuro-pneumonia at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. B. Hutton, formerly Miss Anna Guihen, at Humble, Texas.

Mrs. Doherty left here a few days ago on a vacation for a visit at Springfield, Mo., with her sister, Mrs. P. H. Gillespie, formerly Miss Lulu Guihen, of Sedalia.

Mesdames Doherty and Gillespie left Springfield for a visit with Mrs. Hutton, and also intended to visit two other sisters, Mrs. Fred Parell, formerly Miss Pet Guihen, of Beaumont, Texas, and Miss Crissie Guihen, who is teaching in the public schools at Beaumont.

It was while en route to Humble that Mrs. Doherty was taken ill, and a letter received by a Sedalia friend today from Mrs. Gillespie said:

"Rose is in a serious condition, but she is under the care of a good physician, and we have strong hopes for her recovery."

Mrs. Doherty is one of the best known and most popular salesladies in Sedalia, and the prayers of a legion of friends will be offered for her early convalescense.

MILLIONS TO QUIT MEAT

Sanction of Religion With Boycott Is the Cause.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel

New York, Feb. 9.—With the beginning of Lent today, it is expected that many millions of Americans will join in inaugurating a period of absolute fasting, so far as meat is concerned, and the outlook for the packers is but a gloomy one.

With the sanction of religion added to the economic appeal, the anti-meat eaters consider the victory already as good as won, and they predict that by Easter all kinds of meat will be selling at little more than half the prices recently charged.

Reports from all over the country today appear to confirm this view.

THE SEINE RISING AGAIN

Paris Not Yet Free from Flood—Further Raise is Predicted.

Paris, Feb. 9.—The river Seine has risen nine inches during the past twenty-four hours, owing to yesterday's rain and the melting snow. The hydrographic department predicts a continued rise until Friday, when it will reach the height of 22 feet at Pont-Royal and equal the flood level of 1882.

DID DR. HYDE DO IT?

CORONER'S JURY FINDS KANSAS CITY PHYSICIAN CAUSED SWOPE'S DEATH.

HIS INTENT IS LEFT IN DOUBT

Verdict Was Returned at 1 O'clock This Afternoon, After One Hour's Deliberation—Hyde Refused to Testify.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 9—"Col. Thos. H. Swope came to his death by reason of strychnine administered in a capsule by Dr. B. C. Hyde, but whether by felonious intent or not we, the jury, are unable to say."

This verdict was rendered at 1 o'clock this afternoon by the coroner's jury which investigated the death of Col. Swope at Independence, after being out one hour.

When the inquest opened this morning Dr. Hyde was called to the stand, but his attorneys declined to let him testify and he was excused for the time.

Miss Kellar, the nurse, was then recalled.

The inquest ended at noon. At that time the inquiry into the causes that led to the death of Col. Thomas Hunton Swope was given over to the jurymen.

The last session proved to be a sensational one, for Dr. B. C. Hyde, physician to Col. Swope on the day he died, and the prescriber of a digestive capsule which preceded the death only a short while, refused to testify to the coroner's jury and refused even to be sworn.

The scene lasted only a few moments, but in that time more excitement was crowded than in the entire two days of the testimony. It was a space of time in which pulses beat with excitement and in which the eyes of the jurymen, spectators, witnesses and even the stenographers forgot everything else except to direct their every attention to the four figures—Frank P. Walsh, Hyde's attor; Dr. B. F. Zwart, county coroner; Virgil Conkling, prosecuting attorney, and Dr. Hyde.

The coroner's lips were just beginning to frame the name of Hyde when Walsh arose.

"The attorneys for Dr. Hyde have advised him not to testify," Walsh said. "We don't care for him to testify here and therefore at our suggestion he must decline to be sworn."

Then Prosecuting Attorney Conkling broke in: "I have here a copy of a newspaper," he began. "It contains a signed statement by Dr. Hyde, and in the light of his refusal to testify I desire to—"

Then Walsh almost shouted: "If this is done for purpose of publication I—"

"I hold," said the coroner, "that the coroner has the right to examine witnesses, and that Dr. Hyde was subpoenaed in the regular way and must therefore testify."

"We refuse to allow the witness to testify," insisted Walsh.

Then Prosecutor Conklin, still with the newspaper copy of Hyde's statement in his hand, the statement in which Hyde said he was willing to testify at any inquiry, declared:

"That is sufficient for the purposes of the prosecutor."

Yesterday in the Swope Case.

Mrs. L. O. Swope testified that Miss Kellar, the nurse, was called at Dr. Hyde's suggestion. Says Col. Swope was feeling better than usual the night before his death and that Dr. Hyde directed that digestive tablets be given to him. She didn't know, she says, about Col. Swope's bequests, but it was understood by the relatives, Dr. Hyde included, that Mrs. Swope's children were to be the main beneficiaries. Col. Swope talked often of his property, but she knew nothing definite about it, except that he didn't want it all to go to his nieces and nephews. He didn't like children and her daughters and son were not on intimate terms with him, she testifies. Col. Swope had often said he didn't expect to live long, but had said nothing within several weeks of his death about expecting to die soon. Moss Hunton, she testifies, had tablets containng strychnine in his medicine chest, which was near Col. Swope's room. Col. Swope had talked of changing his will shortly before his death, she says. She threw away much medicine after Col. Swope's death. She says she feels no ill will toward Dr. Hyde.

Dr. Ludwg Hektoen, the Chicago pathologist, testifies that Col. Swope's vital organs were all practically normal, and that the body was frozen when the autopsy was held. Embalming had no effect on the analysis, he says. Says he put parts of Col. Swope's body in glass jars and took them in his suit case to Chicago, where he, Dr. Haines and Dr. Vaughan analyzed them. Read Dr. Vaughan's affidavit and letter of Dr. Haines that one-sixth grain of strychnine was found in Col. Swope's liver. The analysis not complete yet, he said, but Dr. Vaughan has reported verbally

J. J. Steehn Visited Young McGinley —Home Last Evening.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Joe J. Steehn, the meat salesman, returned yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from a business visit at the state capital. While there he paid a visit to Francis McGinley, a patient at St. Mary's hospital, who had a leg broken in a coasting accident there on Sunday, January 9, when several other Sedalia young men were also injured.

The attending physician yesterday placed Francis' fractured limb in a plaster of paris cast, and he sat up immediately afterward for the first time since he was hurt. Today, the doctor stated, Francis could wheel himself around the interior of the hospital in an invalid's chair. If nothing unforeseen arises, Francis will return home early next week, but will have to use crutches for some time.

Each number was rendered exquisitely, and Mr. Ilgenfritz was the recipient of profuse compliments on his ability as a pianist.

Mr. Ilgenfritz is visiting Sedalia relatives.

MAY BE BIG STRIKE

CHICAGO LINES ARE THREATENED WITH A TIE-UP BY BROTHERHOOD.

THE VOTE REJECTS ARBITRATION

Another Conference to Be Sought With the Railroad Managers on Thursday—Trouble May Be Near at Hand.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Chicago is threatened with a railroad strike which will tie up every freight yard, and may seriously cripple road service on every line entering the city.

Negotiations which have been under way for months have reached the crucial point, and the test of strength may come by Saturday night, unless the railroad managers yield from the position they have assumed.

The poll of the men in the yard service in the Chicago district, which is being conducted by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, has shown that the men are going to have a wage increase or fight.

The offer of arbitration is being rejected almost to a man. Up to 6 o'clock last night 2500 votes had been returned and tabulated and showed 97 per cent in favor of withdrawing from the service unless a wage increase is granted.

Telegrams were yesterday sent by A. F. Whitney, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, who is handling the situation, to the chairmen and secretaries of the grievance committees of trainmen in road service, to meet him in conference today, and be prepared to issue instructions to their men. All the committeemen except those on the lines of the Grand Trunk and Baltimore & Ohio are hastening to the city.

The question whether a strike shall be called may be determined at a conference on Thursday. Vice President Whitney will today communicate with the managers and request a conference for Thursday.

If the managers continue in their refusal to grant some increase and break off negotiations, the strike may be called at any moment.

The fact that the arbitration board appointed under the Erdman law to adjust the controversy and the Illinois Central and its telegraphers refused any general wage advance has had the effect of prejudicing the trainmen against the law.

They do not want arbitration and say that the law is no longer recognized as a fair one, since the supreme court of the United States declared unconstitutional the section which prohibits the railroads from discharging men because they belong to a labor union.

"Our men feel that the railroad managers are imposing on us because we have been conservative in the past," said Vice President Whitney last night. "The managers do not seem to take our demands seriously, and that is where they are making a mistake. I have never seen our men as determined as they are on this occasion. The present wage rate in Chicago must be broken, and if it is not the crisis will come before Saturday night."

L. ROY JONES AND MISS BESSIE E. HUNT, THE LATTER OF, SWEET SPRINGS.

WERE MARRIED AT CLINTON, MO.

Court Was Adjourned While the Ceremony Was Performed—Couple Will Return to Sedalia to Make Their Home.

L. Roy Jones, a well known driver for the H. E. Huston Transfer Co., residing at 243 East Saline street, and Miss Bessie E. Hunt, a popular young lady of Sweet Springs, went to Clinton last night, where this morning they secured a license to wed.

The couple applied to Judge Ogg, presiding judge of the Henry county court, to marry them, but the latter, being a little timid, appealed to Judge Amick, of the same court, to perform the ceremony.

The latter retorted that Judge Ogg being the presiding judge should have the honor, and Judge Ogg then consented to tie the knot.

Court was adjourned while the ceremony was performed, the other county judges being the witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones will return here to live.

HIGH PRICE BUTTER

A CONGRESSMAN SAYS TAX ON OLEOMARGARINE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR IT.

ASKS THAT LATTER BE REPEALED

Evidence Introduced Today Before the House Committee on Agriculture—How Passage of Law Was Secured.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel

Washington, Feb. 9.—Hearing of evidence was commenced today by the house committee on agriculture on the bill introduced by Representative Burleson, of Texas, repealing the tax on oleomargarine, which tax, he asserted, was responsible for the present high price of butter throughout the country.

Before this tax was imposed, Burleson said, there was manufactured annually 130,000,000 pounds of oleomargarine, which he characterized as a pure and wholesome food product, and which sold for from 12 to 18 cents a pound. The price of butter was 20 to 30 cents a pound.

The production of oleomargarine has been diminished 66 2-3 per cent as a result of the tax, and the price of butter has gone up from 28 cents to 60 cents a pound.

Passage of the law was secured, Burleson charged, by the National Dairy union and by a "stupendous lobby which, it is said, expended a vast sum of money."

Mr. Burleson said that he represented many associations of cattle growers, cottonseed crushers associations, National Retail Grocers' associations and western and southern chambers of commerce in demanding the repeal of the tax and the lowering of the price of butter.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

One hundred members of Sedalia council No. 831, Knights of Columbus, were present at last night's meeting to hear the debate on the question, "Resolved, That Columbus deserves more credit for discovering America than Washington does for saving it."

The affirmative was argued by Attorney W. G. Lynch and Edward Donnelly, while J. S. McGaw, grand knight of the council, and William Van Hoff took the negative.

After a heated discussion, interesting from start to finish, the question was decided in favor of the negatives.

EXIT THE FORUM CLUB.

The Democrat-Sentinel is justly proud of its part in the expose of the disgraceful conditions prevailing in the Forum club, which expose led to the legal action which resulted last night in the forfeiture of the club's charter by Judge Hoffman, after a full and impartial hearing of the facts in the case.

The evidence brought out at the trial fully substantiated every charge made by this paper; indeed, half of the infamy and unlawful practices had not been told, because it was impossible to know of them except through just such legal inquiry as has just been made.

Judge Hoffman was right when he declared from the bench that the club was a constant and consistent violator of the law, and that it was his plain duty to take from its its privilege to exist.

It is no more than right in this connection to say that Prosecuting Attorney Dow deserves the praise of every good citizen for the fearless, energetic and earnest manner in which he prosecuted the case. He is entitled to and will receive the thanks of every upholder of law, every believer in the higher and better things of life

And now that this step in the right direction has been taken, and one dive broken up, let us see that others that undoubtedly exist in various parts of the city be given the same heroic treatment.

CHANGE THE RULERS.

It is more necessary to change the rulers than to change the rules of the house. Bad rules may, inded, facilitate the passage of bad legislation, but good rules would not insure the passage of good legislation.

The disease, says Senator Gore in the National Monthly, lies deeper and the remedy must go farther. Let us defeat alike those who would adopt bad rules and enact bad laws. Let us elect for the Sixty-second congress a majority of progressive democrats and as many progressive republicans as possible.

Speaker Cannon in the house and Senator Aldrich in the senate are, indeed, the Apollyon in the path of progress, the chosen champions of privilege, the guiding geniuses of the new administration, the friends and favorites of the king, perched upon the very arms of the throne.

Roosevelt was able to stand alone, to run his administration without their overshadowing domination. He regarded their advice and example rather as a warning to shun than as a guide to follow. Mr. Taft, it seems, surrendered at the first summons.

Roosevelt, in his way, was the friend of progress and the foe of special privilege. The new president is carrying out the policies of the ex-president—on a stretcher. The people may yet prefer the strenuosity of Roosevelt to the sinuosity of Taft. They may yet conclude that the hands are the hands of Esau, but the voice is Jacob's voice."

If rumor speaks truth, the war against progress and the progressives is to be fought under a black flag—"obedience or the bowstring" was the sultan's decree. Those who bow the knee are to enjoy the smiles of favor. Those who stand erect are to incur "the frown of offended majesty."

Is free thought to be tethered and free speech to be silenced? Must the sworn representatives of the people barter principles for patronage and patriotism for pie? Must they surrender the principles of a lifetime for

TO RETAIN DR. HILL.

The question of retaining the services of President A Ross Hill as head of the State University is agitating educational circles of Missouri, and fears are expressed that the offer of Minnesota, with its greater opportunities, may be accepted. It is not, it seems, a matter of salary with Dr. Hill; that is of secondary importance, but the broad field and the greater chance to do things appeals to him most strongly.

It appears, however, that if Missouri will do her part and make the University what it should be, Dr. Hill will consent to stay, otherwise he will leave.

Steps are now being taken to show that the mass of the people are on the side of progress, and petitions are being circulated, addressed to the governor, asking that he do what he can to meet Dr. Hill's desires and retain his services.

One of these petitions will be circulated in Sedalia, and should, and doubtless will, be numerously signed.

In a statement issued at Jefferson City, Governor Hadley said he had received letters from persons in all parts of the state urging him to do what he could to induce Dr. Hill to remain at the University of Missouri.

"I have done and will continue to do all that I can to convince Dr. Hill that his best opportunity for useful public service along educational lines is in the state of Missouri.

"I undertake to say that the answer to the question that is presented to President Hill for decision rests with the people of Missouri rather than with him, myself or any other public official.

"I do not understand that the offer that has come to him from Minnesota is attractive on account of any suggested increase in salary. I do not understand that he is dissatisfied with the present situation on account of any lack of salary, or on account of any unfriendliness on the part of the legislature, because he has frequently stated to me that he felt that the Forty-fifth general assembly dealt with the University as fairly as it could deal, in view of the limited revenue of the state.

"If I understand the situation correctly, the question that exists in Dr. Hill's mind is whether the University will receive such support from the people of Missouri as will give him the opportunities for public service along educational lines here as he would enjoy in the position that has been offered him.

"The people of Missouri must awaken to a realization of the fact that they must make provisions for a more liberal support of ducational work, both along general and scientific lines.

"The state of Missouri should not permit other states, in no way our equal in population or wealth, to take from us our leading educators."

Deafness cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

To the Democrat-Sentinel.

I have naught to say against John A. Collins, Lee Looney, Dr. W. J. Ferguson, W. J. Crawford, E. G. Cassidy or Dr. E. F. Yancey in connection with the democratic nomination for mayor at the April election. As the nominee of the party of Thomas Jefferson I could cheerfully vote for either of these gentlemen were he named to head the democratic ticket this spring. However, I have in my mind's eye a gentleman who as the nominee of the party I believe would make a much better race than either of the gentlemen named above in connection with the honor.

I refer to Judge O. E. Parsons, who for two terms served most creditably as probate judge of Pettis county. I have known Judge Parsons intimately for many years. I was among the first to welcome him to the Queen of the Prairies when he came here from the Empire state to enter the employ of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad.

He first ran a freight train, but it was not long until his ability was recognized and he was promoted to a passenger run. Then came the accident at Clinton that resulted in the amputation of one of his arms. This necessitated his retirement from the railway service.

When nominated by the democracy for judge of the probate court, the railroad men of Sedalia, without regard to party lines, rallied to his support and he was elected. A better judge of probate never sat within the confines of this bailiwick, and it was not surprising that he was renominated and re-elected.

Judge Parsons is a property owner and deeply interested in the welfare of the city. He well knows its needs and would know how to judiciously expend the revenue at the city's command. He is progressive in the truest sense of the word, but at the same time he is conservative. He is for law enforcement in all the walks of life. In short, he is a genial, polished, Christian gentleman, and if his party should see proper to honor him with the nomination for mayor this spring I confidently believe he would be elected by a majority of several hundred, no matter whether he be pitted against Henry W. Meuschke, A. W. McKenzie, E. R. Andler, W. D. Ilgenfritz or J. L. Babcock, all of whom have been mentioned in connection with the republican nomination for the mayoralty.

You may cavass the town, rake it with a fine-tooth comb if you care to, but a more available candidate than "Ed" Parsons it would be impossible to unearth.—Railroader.

Editor Democrat-Sentinel.

While you are mentioning candidates for mayor, what's the matter with Lee Looney?

Every one in Sedalia knows Mr. Looney and knows him for a progressive, forceful, aggressive business man.

He is public-spirited and would, as Chief Executive of Sedalia, do things as they ought to be done and build up the municipality to heights it has never before attained.

He is popular, too, and as the democratic candidate, could not but be elected.

His services to the city as alderman and two terms as county recorder, demonstrate his ability, integrity and devotion to duty, and the writer believes he is the man to preside over the city's destinies for the next two years.—A Sedalian.

As the city election approaches it becomes necessary for the democratic party to select its best men for nomination for the various offices. Several names have been mentioned for the office of mayor. Without seeking to discredit the several gentlemen who have been named, I believe the most available man at this time is John A. Collins.

Mr. Collins served this city as mayor, and during his administration was recognized as being absolutely fair, honest and capable. If nominated he will be elected and will be a credit to the city.—W. S. Farmer.

Miss Pauline Keuck was an incoming passenger on the noon train Sunday for a visit with her mother and sister.

It is certainly with sorrow that we try to chronicle a few lines in regard to the death of one of our best citizens, which occurred Saturday morning. Martin Renkin was known to nearly everybody in this section, and to know him was to be his friend. While he will be greatly missed as a husband and father, I doubt if there is another man in this whole community that will be missed by the public in general as much as Mr. Renkin will be missed. He owned a fine farm four miles northeast of here that is probably worth $50,000. He also had on hand at the time of his death something like 200 head of cattle, and it was while on duty feeding these that he met with the fatal accident. We can hardly express in words the sympathy we have for the bereaved wife and children in this, the trying time of their life.

Federation Value

The Church Militant's Surrender To The Church Triumphant.

Text: "Say ye not, A Federation to all them to whom this people shall say, A Federation; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid" Isaiah 8:12

Correspondence Democrat-Sentinel.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 6.—The fourth and final meeting for the consideration of doctrinal surrenders necessary to Church Federation was held today, Brooklyn's largest auditorium, the Academy of Music, being crowded. Pastor C. T. Russell, of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, delivered the address as follows:

Having viewed during the past three Sundays what the leading denominations would need to sacrifice in the interest of Federation, we come today to the final discussion of this series—The Church Militant and Triumphant and her interest in the Federation movement. Let us endeavor to take so broad a view of this subject that there will be no room for disagreement on the part of true Christians of any denomination.

Unnecessary as it may be to explain to this large and intelligent audience the significance of our topic, The Church Militant and The Church Triumphant, I must think beyond the thousands present of the millions who tomorrow will receive reports of this discourse from that great channel of the world's progres, the secular Press. Hence I explain that the term Church Militant signifies the Church in warfare, struggling with the powers of evil, while the Church Triumphant signifies the Church victorious, glorious, joined with her Lord, the Heavenly Bridegroom, as his Bride and Queen in the great Millennial Kingdom soon to bless and uplift the world of mankind. I should further add that while in this discussion we have considered the various denominations of Christendom and their creeds, we must today ignore all human systems and creeds. We must take the broad, general ground of the Scriptures and recognize only one Church.

Nor may we make the mistake of saying that the one Church is one Sect. No sect, no denomination, however great and influential and numerous and rich, either in sordid or historic wealth, can be conceded the right to appropriate the name which our Lord gave to all truly his disciples. Surely none of us is sectarian enough to dispute this premise. We must learn to recognize the Church of Christ from the same viewpoint as does the Head of the Church. We must learn the force of St. Peter's words to Cornelius, "Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth him and worketh righteousness is accepted with him" (Acts x, 34, 35).

Taking, therefore, the Scriptural view of the Church, we recognize it as the "Body of Christ" of many members, over which he is the Head. It is composed of consecrated followers of Christ irrespective of all denominational lines—those who, turning from sin, accept Jesus as their Redeemer, through whom they have forgiveness of sins and reconciliation to the Father—those who have become disciples of Christ, taking up their cross to follow him and who have received the begetting of the holy Spirit. Who could dispute that these are the Church of Christ? Who shall say that they must belong to this Communion or that, or lose their relationship to the Head, Christ Jesus? The apostles never referred to Baptist Christians, Methodist Christians, Catholic Christians, Presbyterian Christians, etc., but merely to these whom we have described and whom they styled saints—"the Church of the living God, whose names are written in heaven" (Hebrews xii, 23; I Timothy iii, 15). Let us keep strictly within the lines of God's Word and avoid the errors of the past. Let us today consider this Church as the Church Militant and prospectively the Church Triumphant.

The Church Militant.

If we all agree that we have before our minds the real Church, the Church of the New Testaemnt, let us notice that there is a nominal Church also and that we are not competent to fully determine which are the real and which are the nominal Christians except by the test which our Lord has given—"by their fruits ye shall know them." While the real Church of fully consecrated believers, faithful to the Lord and his Word and the principles of righteousness, is represented by a very small number, there is a nominal Church related thereto as is a shell to the kernel of a nut. The nominal Church includes those whose manner or whose attendance on worship implies a relationship to Christ without having gone the length of a full faith-acceptance of him in sacrifice, perhaps without having fully turned from sin even in their hearts, and without having made a full consecration to serve the Lord. This nominal class may be subdivided into believers who are favorably disposed toward Christ and righteousness; others who regard the Church as merely a moral club designed for social and moral benefit or influence upon the world, by counteracting sinful influences; still others, bitter at heart, sinful and selfish, having no faith whatever in Jesus and no care whatever for morality and using the name of Christ hypocritically, merely as a garment to deceive, that they may the better gain their ends. Thus we find the nominal Church to consist of:—

(1) Hypocrites; (2) Moralists; (3) Indifferents; (4) Seekers after godliness; (5) The true Church, "the sanctified in Christ Jesus" (I Corinthians, i, 2)—"members of the Body of Christ"—prospective members of the Church Triumphant.

Fightings Without and Within.

Every member of "the church of the first-born" was called "to suffer with Christ" that he may be also glorified with him in the Millennial kingdom. Only those who will stand the test of faithfulness under sufferings, trials, crosses, self-sacrifices, have the promise of sharing with Christ the glories of the Church Triumphant. "If we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer with him, we shall also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us" (II Timothy ii, 11,12).

But why should the church fight? Is she not commended to live peaceably with all? Are not Christians exhorted to war not with carnal weapons and to be smitten on both cheeks, rather than to return evil for evil? Where, then, comes in the fight? Who are the foes? Surely none would assail a non-resistant!

We reply that the facts do not bear out that suggestion. Our Lord and his apostles were peaceable and nonresistant, obedient to kings and laws, and yet they suffered violent deaths, as well as stripes and imprisonment. They had their names cast out as evil. And those who persecuted and maligned them verily thought that they did God service. All who follow in the Lord's footsteps must expect similar treatment, because, as Jesus said, "The servant is not greater than his Lord." "Marvel not, if the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own; but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you" (John xviii, 18, 19). The Master said, "The darkness hateth the light," which explains why the chief religionists of his time, being of wrong condition of heart, instigated his crucifixion. They were of the darkness, living outwardly holy, while in heart they were far from consecrated to God. The very holding up of the torch of Truth was painful to them, reproved them and excited their animosity. Human nature is the same today. Notwithstanding the fact that heretic-roasting has become unpopular and intolerable to the world, there are methods of privately and symbolically roasting, slashing, wounding and killing practiced by those estranged from God, though sometimes highly esteemed of men and wearing vestments only slightly less glorious than those worn by Caiaphas and Pilate.

"Who Scourgeth Every Son."

The Scriptures explain that there is a two-fold reason why Jesus and all of his followers are required to suffer for righteousness' sake.

(1) It is requisite to their own character development that they should not only profess absolute loyalty to God and to Truth, but that this loyalty should be put to the test. Thus we read of our Lord that though "holy, harmless, undefiled," he was proved perfect in his loyalty to the things which he endured—by his obedience even unto death, even the ignominious death of the cross. The same principle, the Scriptures assure us, operates in connection with all whom God is now calling to be Emmanuel's associates in the Millennial Kingdom. They must suffer with him if they would reign with him. They must walk in his steps (Galatians v, 11; vi, 12; II Thessalonians i, 5; II Timothy i, 12; ii, 9, 12; iii, 12).

(2) These experiences are designed of God to qualify us to be judges of the world during the Millennial age—that the Christ, Head and Body, may be merciful and faithful towards the people of earth. Likewise it is proper that the world should know that its judges have thus been tempted and tried, and are able to sympathize with them in their weaknesses and in their endeavors for righteousness—and more willng to help them up, up, up to human perfection than to consign them to the Second Death.

Although this conflict has lasted for more than eighteen centuries it has not been long for any single individual. With the Master himself the trial period was only three and a half years. On the whole, as compared with eternity, the entire Gospel Age of Sacrifice, as the Master said, is but "a little while." And as for the afflictions and testings themselves, St. Paul gives the proper thought, saying, that at most they are "light afflictions but for a moment and not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us," the overcomers (Romans viii, 18).

The Church Triumphant.

The church in glory and in power will contain no hypocrites and no merely nominal Christians—only the true, the saintly, the sanctified in Christ Jesus. Nevertheless it will be composed of two classes, as illustrated by the Priests and the Levites in the type. (1) Jesus glorified, the anti-typical High Priest, and his faithful footstep followers, the antitypical under-priesthood — otherwise his "Bride." Together these are styled a Royal Priesthood or a Kingdom of Priests. St. Paul tells us that Melchizedek, who was a priest upon his throne, merely typified the Church Triumphant—Head and Body—The Christ, "A priest forever after the order of Melchizedek"—a priest upon his throne.

During the Millennial age that glorious Priest, Head and members will bless and uplift, rule and judge the world of mankind, with a view to recovering as many as possible, as many as will obey him, from the ruin of sin and death. During the thousand years of the Melchiezedek reign all the families of the earth will be blessed with opportunities to return to human perfection and to earthly Paradise. The willful and disobedient will be destroyed in the second death At the close of the Millennium, Christ's mediatorial kingdom will terminate.

As the Levites were much more numerous than their brethren, the priests, so there is another class in the church corresponding, styled "a great company, whose number no man knoweth," in that they were not specially predestinated. These, less earnest, less zealous than the faithful "little flock," will reach a plane of glory through tribulation also, but with less joy. These, we are told, will be with the bride and her companions. As Levites, they will serve God in His temple, but not be members of the temple class, the priesthood. These will have palm branches and be before the throne, while the Royal Priesthood will have crowns and be in the throne as members of the body of Christ.

The Church Militant's Surrender.

All the soldiers of the cross, experiencing fightings without and within against the powers of sin and darkness and their own weaknesses surely long for the time of their "change" in the "first resurrection." They long for the time when this mortal shall have put on immortality; when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption; when we shall be like our Redeemer and see Him as He is and share His glory. Gladly therefore, do all of God's consecrated people wait for the blessed change promised at our Lord's second coming, when that which is sown in weakness shall be raised in power; when that which is sown in dishonor shall be raised in glory; when that which is sown an animal body shall be raised a spiritual body (I Corinthians xv, 42-44, 53-54). Surely, such having prayed, "Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as in heaven," are waiting for the King and God's time for establishing His kingdom for the blessing of the world. No wonder the apostle wrote of these, "Ourselves, also, which have the first fruits of the spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to-wit, the redemption of our body."—the body of Christ, the church, through the power of the "first resurrection" change. This will be our glad surrender to the church triumphant, when we shall hear the Master's voice, saying, "Well done, good and faithful servants; enter ye into the joys of your Lord. You have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things"—participants in the Millennial kingdom glory and its dominion of earth for the uplifting of mankind (I Corinthians vi, 2; Revelation ii 26).

Union of Federation—Which?

I ask you, my hearers, and indirectly I ask the millions of my larger congregation, whom I address weekly through the public prints, what advantage will accrue to the church militant through the oncoming federation? I reply that great advantage will come to the saintly few, not in the manner expected, but along the lines of the Divine promise that "All things shall work together for good to them that love God—to the called according to his purpose." The church federation, which the Scriptures distinctly show us will be effected, will include the various classes already indicated: (1) hypocrites; (2) moralists; (3) followers afar off; (4) saints.

But in the federation the moralists and higher critics will be dominant forces. The saintly will less than ever be in evidence and appreciated. The outward and apparent success of the federation will seem wonderful for a moment, but the results will be disastrous.

The saintly few, guided by God's Word and Holy Spirit, will awaken to the true situation and become separated from the nominal mass. Their misguided hopes as respects the bringing about of a spiritual kingdom on earth will be thoroughly shattered, and, more than ever, they will look to the Lord as a source of help and wait for His kingdom to come through the Redeemer's advent and the resurrection change.

In a word, God's saintly people need no outward federation, even as they need no credal fences. So far as these are concerned, the sooner all barriers between them are leaped and they come together as members of one body, joined to the Heavenly Head and Lord, the better Let churchianity produce its federation and see its folly and failure, as outlined in our text But let the saints of God draw near to Him and to each other in a spiritual union, and realize to the full the meaning of the apostle's words, "One faith; one Lord; one baptism"—one "church of the living God, whose names are written in heaven." This condition can not be attained through outward bonds, but can be obtained only through drinking into the one Spirit obtainable through the proper understanding of the Word of God.

ENGINEER CLARK IS DEAD

Pulled Train Raided by Guerillas at Centralia, Mo.

Moberly, Mo., Feb. 8.—James Clark, the engineer who pulled the train from St. Louis, Mo., in Septembr. 1864, to Centralia, Mo., when twenty-five Union soldiers were taken from the train and massacred by "Bill" Anderson and his band of guerillas, died at his home in this city yesterday

He was born in Caxton, Cambridge, England, January, 1829. He came from his native land to Ohio and entered the train service in 1856. In 1857 he entered the service of the North Missouri Railroad Co., which is now the Wabash, and in those days only ran as far north as Macon, Mo.

In 1860 he was advanced to the position of engineer, and held that position up to a few years ago, when old age made it necessory for him to retire. However, he was not dismissed from the company's employ. At the time of his death he held a position as watchman at the company's shops. His story of the Centralia massacre has often been published and is known to all who take an interest in Civil war history.

The funeral will be conducted in this city tomorrow afternoon by the Masons, of which order he had been a member for years.

While it is often impossible to prevent an accident, it is never impossible to be prepared—it is not beyond any one's purse. Invest 25 cents in a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and you are prepared for sprains, bruises and like injuries. Sold by all dealers.

WOMEN ARE FREED

EVELYN THAW AND NAN PATTERSON CASES EVIDENCE OF JURY SENTIMENT.

"TESS" SULLIVAN IN ST. LOUIS

Minnie Cummings, However, Was Convicted Despite Her Wiles—What Lawyers Have to Say of Cases of Females.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 8.—With the trial of Mrs. Dora Doxey on a murder charge in prospect as a notable case of the near future, St. Louis lawyers were interested Monday in the assertion of Prosecutor Hunt, of Cincinnati, that "American jurors will not convict a woman."

Hunt's statement was made after the prosecution of Mrs Jeanette Stewart Ford, charged with blackmail in the Warriner case, and failed through a disagreemnt of jurors, a majority favoring acquittal.

He instanced the failures to convict Nan Patterson and the action of the juries which heard Evelyn Thaw, as showing a "species of diseased mentalities which seems to affect American jurors and prevent them convicting a woman on any charge."

St. Louis lawyers do not deny a tendency in the direction indicated by Hunt, but they seem to agree that a woman can not "get away" with a crime in St. Louis merely because she is a woman. The conviction of Minnie Cummings for killing her fourth husband, which was wholly on circumstantial evidence, was one case in which a woman who had captivated several men, tried her arts in vain on a St. Louis jury.

On the other hand, it is recalled that Myrtle Elerby, who killed the man who had broken his promise to marry her, was acquitted by a St. Louis jury, and that Tess Sullivan who killed her fiance because he failed to keep an engagement with her was also acquitted.

Hiram N. Moore, former judge of the court of criminal correction, and a well known criminal lawyer, said Monday:

"In most cases a woman has no better chance of acquittal by a St Louis jury than a man.

"It is true that in cases where the woman's honor has been involved, jurors are inclined to think of their own wives, daughters and sisters and to be more lenient. But on a charge of theft or forgery or fraud or mercenary crime, a woman can not count on leniency merely because she is a woman. I have observed the workings of our courts enough to be certain of this."

Judge Thomas B. Harvey, in discussing the subject, said: "It is a well known fact that a good looking young woman exercises a sort of hypnotic influence over a jury, which causes them to yield to sympathy for her. The same evidence which would convict a man or a plain woman will not convict an attractive young woman. This is a fact brought out by the general experience of all lawyers."

A St. Louis case in this connection is the acquittal of Jessie Roth, a good looking young woman, who was tried before Judge Daniel G. Taylor a few years ago on a charge of panel-working.

The susceptibility of the jury to her charms during the trial aroused C. Orick Bishop, the prosecutor, to the unprecedented act of addressing the twelve men in contemptuous terms after their verdict had been rendered.

The character of the woman was called notorious. She was involved in the police graft trials. After Lee Kilian was killed by "Little Georgie" Williams, she claimed the dead man's jewelry, worth $1,000, which she asserted she had loaned to him, and for wearing which he was discharged from the detective department.

But she appeared on the witness stand in all her finery. Her skirts were skillfully raised so as to afford a glimpse of a trim ankles and of fetching clocks on silk hose.

It was afterward stated by Judge Bishop that the jury, which was composed of young men, were more attentive to the ankles than they were to the evidence.

When the verdict of acquittal was rendered Judge Bishop sprang to his feet and asked permission to address the jury. It was granted, and the attorney, white with anger, exclaimed:

"You unsophisticated gentlemen of the jury, I feel sorry for you. I hope you will never be called upon to try another case in criminal courts. When an attractive woman with open-work stockings can convince a jury of her innocence, although all the evidence is against her, it will be difficult for the state to ever hope for a conviction in a similar case."

SEDALIA MISSIONS

LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT PRESENTED AND ENDORSED.

LOCAL COMMITTEE IS ORGANIZED

Meeting Was Held at First Christian Church Last Night—Committee Will Meet at 12:15 O'clock Thursday Afternoon.

One of the most enthusiastic men's meetings ever held in Sedalia was that at the First Christian church last evening. One hundred and twenty-five of the very best men of the city sat at a banquet and discussed the Laymen's Missionary movement. This is an undenominational movement of all the Protestants of the country.

The banquet was served by the ladies of the church where the meeting was held. This was a well prepared as well as a well served repast. The men, with their usual good judgment of good things to eat, thoroughly enjoyed everything that was set before them.

The guests represented the laymen of the various churches of the city. The meeting was called to order by Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer, and Judge Louis Hoffman was unanimously chosen as the chairman and toastmaster The selection of the judge was one of the happy events of the meeting, and those present very soon found that they had made no mistake in bestowing the honor on Mr. Hoffman. In taking the chair the gentleman found it very hard to restrain himself from making a long speech, as he said this was a subject that was very close to his own heart; but in his usual genial way the judge presented the objects of the meeting in well chosen words.

Rev. W. F. Sheridan, D. D., of Kansas City, was introduced and was heartily greeted with a round of applause. He outlined the movement from its birth up to the present time, telling of many great things that had already been accomplished both in this country and in England. He showed that the movement was a band of men organized to aid in the work of the church. The organization collected no money, took no pledges whatever, but its object was to stimulate the work that is already being carried on by the various church agencies and boards by enlisting the men.

Mr. Guy M. Withers, a business man of Kansas City, was then introduced. He said in part: "Missions is a man's job. Why not? It is the hardest of work and attended by the most trying of difficulties."

He asked why we had turned this work over almost entirely to the ladies of the churches. If the ladies need the Lord Jesus in their work how much more does the business man need Him at his arduous tasks, at his desk, in the shops and other places? If we were to go to war with the Chinese, would we send our women to the front? No. Then, why not also have men in the front of the movement to take the blessed Gospel to those who need a Savior?

Mr. Withers told of the very great leaders in the world's work that were already deeply interested in the matter, and of the things that had been started and were being carried out. He then presented the plan of organization and asked that a local committee be named to co-operate in this great movement.

After a general discussion of the plans and objects and indorsement of the work, the meeting unanimously elected Judge Louis Hoffman as the chairman of the local committee. In making up the personnel of the committee it was decided that one layman from each of the churches should be named, and that each local pastor should also be on this committee.

After a three minutes' recess, in which each of the church representatives held a brief conference and selected their own man, the meeting was again called to order and the following named were announced as the committeemen:

Broadway Presbyterian church—John Montgomery, jr.

First M. E. church—E. E. Johnston.

First Congregational church—C. E. West.

First Christian church—W. W. Herold.

Central Presbyterian church—Gordon Norris.

First Baptist church—John H. Piper.

East Sedalia Baptist church—W. O Stanley.

Calvary Episcopal church—D. H Smith.

East Broadway Christian church—G. M. Hoadley.

Epworth M. E. church—S. G. Whiprecht.

Fifth Street M. E. church—S. R. Payne.

Trinity English Lutheran church—To be appointed.

Second Congregational church—To be appointed.

German M. E. church—To be appointed.

Dr. Sheridan then presented the matter of the coming convention of the movement. The convention is to be held in Kansas City on Feb. 22-26 and is one of seventy-five that are being held all over the country. A number of prominent speakers are making a tour of these various conventions, and it is already assured that the program will be the very best. A large number of the business men of Sedalia have signed credentials for this meeting and a number of others will be added in a few days. One feature of the Kansas City meeting will be a banquet, which will be spread in the big Convention hall. Plates will be laid for 2,200 men. No ladies will be admitted

Chairman Hoffman announced a meeting of the local committee for Thursday noon, at 12:15, at the dinner table at Rembaugh's.

The meeting adjourned after singing a couple of verses of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and prayer by Rev. Harod Cooper, of the First Congregational church.

The Sedalia committee is indebted to the Kansas City men for their services, which they tendered without any cost whatsoever. These men pay their own expenses on these trips and are doing what they can to aid in the movement.

CHILD DEAD IN HER ARMS

Tries to Throw Herself From Train on Making Discovery.

Pueblo, Colo., Feb. 7.—Crazed by the discovery that her 3-year-old daughter was dead in her arms, Mrs. Grantz White, wife of a rancher of Fillmore, Cal., tried to throw herself from the car window on the Denver & Rio Grande railroad California Limited train as it was coming into Pueblo Saturday. The woman was forcibly restrained by the passengers and conductor, and held in her seat until she could be turned over to the police here.

Mrs. White, accompanied by her three children, was returning home from a visit to her mother at Camargo, Ill. She was holding her little daughter in her arms, and, stooping over to kiss the child, discovered she was dead. With a shriek of "My God, she's dead!" Mrs. White leaped to her feet and tried to throw herself from the window.

She was taken to a hotel here and placed under a physician's care. She tried time and again to throw herself from the hotel window, and finally opiates were given her. Her condition is serious.

Diskin got out on the end of the beam and carefully sawed it in two between himself and the window. He and the end of the log fell together to the pavement. Neither were much hurt.

When asked why he had done such a thing Diskin replied, in some heat, "Sure, them was me orders."

Mrs. McNallen is a widow with three small children to support. She had saved in an endeavor to get enough to buy a home. The money lost represented everything of value she owned. She carried the money in a small purse in her stocking.

As she stepped from the car her stocking ripped and the purse dropped to the street. She noticed the loss almost immediately and called several pedestrians to assist her in a search, but she could not find her property.

that poison was found in Col. Swope's stomach. Amount not determined. Said Col. Swope's brain showed no signs of hemorrhage.

Dr. Frank Hall, bacteriologist, testifies that there was nothing in the condition of Col. Swope's body to indicate whether death was from natural or unnatural causes.

Alleged Son's Story Told.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Feb. 9.—Elmer Caryall Swope, of this city, who says he is a son of the late Col. Thomas H. Swope, told some details last night of the contentions upon which he will base a fight for the Swope millions. He has retained a lawyer, and says that Col. Swope was married before the civil war to Miss Caryall, a southern girl, from whom he was separated when the war came on. Six months after the separation the son, Elmer Caryall Swope, was born, according to the story the lawyer will attempt to prove. The mother died of a broken heart, and when the war ended Col. Swope returned to his West Virginia home to be told of the death of his young wife, but he was never told of the birth of the son, the lawyer says will be shown.

WIFE HAD REMARRIED

Discovery Made in Trip to Old Home in Violation of Parole.

Youngstown, O., Feb. 7.—Thomas L. Leavis, alias Clyde Johnson, returned here to see his wife and children, only to find her remarried and his home gone.

Saturday, disconsolate, he appeared at the county jail and asked to be returned to Illinois, which state he had left while on parole from the Joliet penitentiary.

Leavis left here several years ago for the west and for some time wrote regularly to his family and furnished them with funds. When arrested and sent to the state prison his letters ceased, and, believing him dead, his wife married again.

Lately Leavis was paroled, but not allowed to leave Illinois. The desire to see his family, however, induced him to violate his promise, and he returned to Youngstown.

Boys' Corn Growing Contest

Season of 1910

Columbia, Mo., Feb 7.—The Boys' Corn Growing contest was organized in 1906 for the purpose of stimulating a greater interest among Missouri farm boys in growing more corn and better corn. When a boy is trained to do one thing well he will do other things in a better manner. The contest plan for improving the corn crop of the state was inaugurated in 1907 by the state board of agriculture, in co-operation with the agricultural college and the Missouri world's fair commission.

The world's fair commission furnished a limited amount of improved seed, which was distributed to those entering the contest, and in the fall of that year prizes were offered in each county for the best samples of corn shown at county institutes held by the state board of agriculture. Experts from the agricultural college judged the corn and awarded the prizes. The first prize corn at the local contests supplied most of the corn that made up Missouri's exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase exposition.

Organized in 1906.

In 1906 the Missouri Corn Growers' association, in co-operation with the agricultural college and the state state agricultural college and the the Boys' Corn Growing contest. The college furnished the boys with a limited amount of seed when there was no improved seed in the neighborhood available, and each boy who entered the contest agreed to plant and cultivate the corn under the direction of the agricultural, college and in the fall to exhibit a sample at the local annual show. All prize corn at the local show was to be exhibited at the state fair at Sedalia and at the state corn show held in Columbia during Farmers' week. The first year about 250 boys enterd the contest, and that number increased to nearly 2,500 in 1909.

175,000 Farmer Boys.

There are approximately 300,000 farm families in the state and it is conservative to estimate that there are 175,000 Missouri farm boys of all ages, from 10 to 20 years. If each of these boys would grow just one acre of pure-bred corn this year, and, by giving it better cultivation, increase the yield on that one acre ten bushels above the average yield for the neighborhood, it would amount to an increased total yield of 1,750,000 bushels, which at 50 cents per bushel would add $875,000 to the wealth of the state. This can be done. Then, why not? Many of our farm boys are so situated that they can grow 10 acres, or 20 acres, or 40 acres, and this improvement can be made to cover the entire acreage.

Improvement along any line does not come spontaneously, but comes only by well organized effort. It is for the purpose of interesting progressive farmers, business men, bankers and others, that this circular is issued suggesting plans whereby men who want to do something for the community can co-operate with the Corn Growers' association, the agricultural college and the state board of agriculture.

250 Boys in a Contest.

To illustrate what has been done we give the following examples: In Perry county, last year, 250 boys entered the contest. Sixty-eight of the number entered an exhibit at the county corn show, and most of these boys attended the county institute held in Perryville, and so great was the interest among the farmers that a large number were unable to get inside the court room, although it had a seating capacity of about 500 people.

Cape Girardeau, Mercer, Livingston, Jasper and other counties held equally successful meetings. One county deserving special mention is that of Texas, situated in the Ozark country. The college of agriculture supplied over 400 boys of that county with one quart of seed each. One hundred and thirty-three of the number exhibited corn at the county institute. Mr. W. J. McGee, cashier of the Texas County bank, who has public spirit and foresight enough to see the value to his county, and incidentally to his own business, offered for the first prize a free scholarship to the winter short course in the agricultural college.

Exhibit Kept in a Bank.

This exhibit is kept by the bank as a permanent attraction, and many farmers drop into the bank to see it Real estate men never fail to show the premium corn to their customers The bank will reap a reward in increased business and the county in improved methods of agriculture. Jasper county should also receive special mention. In that county a member of the board of agriculture, Hon. Sanford M. Smith, in co-operation with the newspapers of Carthage and the business men, offered a premium list amounting to $600. which was competed for by 250 entries.

As a result of this show. Mr. Smith took with him to the winter short course at Columbia nine boys, at the expense of the people of Jasper county. I should have mentioned that Cape Girardeau county sent, at the expense of the business men and corn growers, four boys. Two of these Cape Girardeau county boys carried away the first and second prizes offered at the state corn show in the judging contest.

Plans for 1910 Contest.

There will be, as heretofore, two classes in the State Corn Growing contest: A young men's class for all those under 20 and over 16 years of age, and a boys' class for those over 10 and under 16 years of age. We would suggest that these classes be followed in local contests.

Who should organize the local contests? Any banker or business man who wants a good advertising proposition, any newspaper or public spirited farmer or county superintendent of schools, who desires to see the farm methods of the county improved, may well afford to consider the local boys' corn growing contest as a practical method of doing it.

Improved Variety of Seed.

The seed should be of one or more of the improved varieties of corn, and can usually be secured from some good corn grower in the county, which we would always advise doing when possible, as it is likely to be better adapted to conditions than seed brought from a great distance Where it is not possible to secure any improved seed the college of agriculture has arranged to furnish seed in limited quantities at 5 cents per quart, provided the shipping charges are paid by those in charge of the contest, and providing that a list of the boys entering the contest is filed with the college.

The college will not agree to send out corn to individual boys, as has been the practice heretofore, but only in bulk to the organizers of contests, who will distribute it locally.

Prizes to Be Offered.

Commercial clubs, banks, business firms and public spirited farmers may be enlisted to offer cash prizes or other articles of value. The most attractive prize is a free scholarship with all expenses paid, to the winter short course at Columbia during Farmers' week. (These trips should include car fare, room and board for the five days of the show), or, as has been offered by a few banks, a free scholarship to the seven weeks' short course, beginning on the first Monday in January, which will amount to about $50. If possible, it will be a wise plan to arrange a premium list so that each boy who shows corn and attends the session of the institute shall be awarded a prize of some kind. A good pocket knife makes a very suitable prize. The lectures at these institutes are of great value, and it is desired to have every boy attend.

Sample Premium List.

Grand sweepstakes prize for the ten ears of any variety making the highest score, a free scholarship for the seven weeks' short course at Columbia, amount $50. (If there is not sufficient money for this prize, then it might be made $20, to cover the five days' work during Farmers' week.

Young Men's Class--For best ten-ear sample yellow corn. first prize, $4; second, 3; third, $2; fourth, $1; fifth, 50 cents.

Same class. white corn—First prize, $4; second, $3; third, $2; fourth, $1; fifth, 50 cents.

Boys' Class—Duplicate of above prizes should be offered.

Special Prizes—For best single ear yellow corn, first prize, $5; second prize, $2. For best single ear white corn, first prize, $5, second, $2.

Each boy who enters the contest should be required to register with the man who is conducting the contest. He should promise to exhibit at least ten ears of his best corn at the local show, and, if this corn should be considered worthy by the judge, he should agree to permit it to be forwarded to either the state fair at Sedalia in October or to the corn show at Columbia during Farmers' week. The names of the contestants should be forwarded to the secretary of the state board of agriculture, so that literature may be supplied.

County Courts May Act.

County courts are authorized to appropriate money for premiums: "The county court of any county in which there shall be a regularly organized county agricultural and mechanical society, county corn growers' association, county poultry association, county stock growers' association or other organization having for its object the advancement of agriculture or its allied industries, may, if it be deemed expedient, appropriate out of the county treasury for the benefit of such society, a sum not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars in any one year; and the money so appropriated shall be drawn by the treasurer of te society on a proper warrant. Provided, said money shall be awarded by the board of directors or other proper officers in premiums or expended by them in the purchase of premiums, to be known as 'The .....County Court Premiums,' to be awarded according to the laws, rules and regulations of the society."—Section 4715, Session Acts 1907.

The county court can not spend $100 of the county's funds to better purpose than to encourage a boys' corn contest. Upon the suggestion of any interested citizen the court may be induced to make this appropriation.

DO IT NOW

Sedalia People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late.

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into the grasp of diabetes, dropsy, Bright's disease, gravel or some other serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders — they cure dred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. Ellen McNeil, 803 E. Broadway, Sedalia, Mo., says: "I suffered a great deal from kidney and bladder trouble and had pains in the small of my back and hips. My rest was often disturbed and I arose in the morning feeling lame and sore I generally felt tired and languid and I sometimes noticed a swelling beneath my eyes. I tried several remedies, but was not helped until a neighbor told me about Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at Bard's drug store and the results of their use were better than I had expected. In a short time I was in good health. I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

Why No Election Was Held.

The dispatches from Jefferson City state that one precinct in Dade county did not vote in the special congressional election in the Sixth district. This failure to take part in the election was because of a smallpox epidemic in that locality, which made it inadvisable to hold any public gathering.

An attack of grip is often followed by a persistent cough, which to many proves a great annoyance. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been extensively used and with good success for the relief and cure of this cough. Many cases have been cured after all other remedies have failed. Sold by all dealers.

AGE DOESN'T STOP HIM

Is 96 Years Old, but Still Found at His Desk in Bank.

Edina, Mo., Feb. 8.—One of the most active old men in Missouri is Philip Linville. Mr. Linville is 96 years old, but is still found at his desk at the Bank of Edina about six days out of the week. He has had many interesting experiences in the state, as he has lived here practically all of his life.

Mr. Linville is one of the parties who assisted in building the first log church in this vicinity in 1843. Logs for the church were hauled by oxen and the building was constructed by the settlers in about three days. It served them as a house of worship for many years, but finally was replaced by a more modern structure.

Warsaw Starts Campaign Early.

Warsaw is also having the baseball fever early, says the Clinton Democrat. Instead of having a single manager, there will be a board of five business men, headed by H. P. Lay.

It was decided to have the team made up of home talent as near as possible, and that means no going back, as the city has many amateur players in the first rank.

HADLEY GETS FINE COW

Holstein Will Help Solve High Price Problem.

Following his advice to those who attended the meeting of the Missouri Land and Industrial congress to obtain better stock for their farms, Governor Hadley last week authorized Dr. William P. Cutler, state food and drug commissioner, a dairy expert, to purchase a fine cow for the mansion at Jefferson City, says Sunday's St. Louis Republic.

The animal, a Holstein grade, was bought Friday from P. P. Lewis, of Crescent, Mo., president of the Missouri State Dairy association. She is worth $150 and has a milk capacity of six gallons a day, which will go far toward filling any possible void caused by the high price of meat. The animal will be shipped to Jefferson City this week.

WORK IN MISSIONS

THE MAGNIFICENT SUM OF $30,000,000 RAISED FOR THE SPLENDID PURPOSE.

DAILY INSTRUCTION IN THE BIBLE

A School for the Training of Christian Women—Special Courses of Lectures a Portion of the Program.

The Missionary society of the Fifth Street M. E. church, South, furnishes the Democrat-Sentinel the following for publication.

One of the most significant signs of the times is the $30,000,000 raised by the laymen in their magnificent enterprise; and the evangelized Indians are going out as missionaries among their own people.

A school for the training of Christian women has been started in Chicago. Daily instruction will be given in the Bible and its use, and in methods of Christian work. Special courses of lectures will be given by experts along various lines. There will be no tuition.

As a secular journalist, F. A. McKenzie, the well known foreign correspondent of the London Mail, says in the London Christian World:

"The greatest civilizing force in China during the last half century, and especially during the last fifteen or twenty years, has been Christianity.

"It has broken down the barriers and has transformed the attitude of the people."

And again: "A stranger stopped me. 'I cannot understand,' he said, 'why you, a newspaper man, should advocate missionary work. It is not your business. Why do you meddle with it?'

"'I do it because I am a Christian Imperialist,' I replied.

"The man still looked puzzled, so I went on:

"'I believe that England stands for good homes, for kindness to children, for a high standard of womanhood and for peace.

"'The white man's civilization is the best the world has seen, and the white man's civilization is based on Christianity. The more British influence spreads the more our ideals prevail.

"'I know that every missionary is an active campaigner, not merely for a new theology, but also for a new life, a life based on the foundation of our civilization—the cross.

"'I want the white man's ideals to triumph, not for the glory of the whites, but for the betterment of woman life and child life throughout the world.'"

Dresden has long been known as "just a sleepy little town on the main line of the Missouri Pacific," but this is no longer true. Business is brisk and many new modern homes have been built in the last few years. Propertyis changing hands and building lots are selling readily. Here we have two first class general stores, two halls, five churches, two schools and a private hotel. Also a first class blacksmith shop. Here, too,is located a good poultry, stock and grain market, while surrounding the town are some of the most enterprising farmers and best farms in Pettis county. A number of citizens here are now going to order ballast in car load lots, and as soon as the weather will permit work will be commenced on new concrete sidewalks.

EGGS IN STORAGE

STATEMENT THAT THERE ARE 36,000,000 IN JERSEY CITY IS DOUBTED.

ARE ONLY 30,000,000 IN CHICAGO

Said the Actual Cost of the Eggs on Reaching the Lakeside City Is 25 Cents a Dozen—Retail at 30 Cents.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Commission men of Chicago who make a specialty of eggs doubt the statement made in Jersey City that there are 36,000,000 eggs held in one storage house there incidentally throwing additional light on the "high living" question.

Chicago egg dealers say that there are usually more eggs in storage in this city than anywhere else in the country, and they can find only 30,000,000 in all the cold storage houses here.

This is a sufficient number to keep the city supplied for not longer than ten days, and it is an indication of how the great American hen has been soldiering. There are approximately 75,000 cases in cold storage, containing 30 dozens, or 360 eggs each.

The average daily demand for Chicago use, for fresh and storage eggs combined, is 10,000 cases. When the supply of fresh eggs is slack the demand for the storage variety increases, and vice versa.

Commission men insist that there is more money in handling fresh eggs than those in storage, and that if the price continues to remain around the 40 cent mark the hen should be blamed.

Eggs purchased in the summer and fall are figured to cost the Chicago dealer 22c a dozen by the time they reach the city. With storage charges, the cost of candling and the losses through breakage, etc., added, the total actual cost is about 25 cents per dozen.

This means that the consumer must pay from 28 to 30 cents per dozen. If the hens should suddenly become energetic and a big supply of fresh eggs dumped on the market, the result would be that fresh eggs would sell at a lower figure than the actual cost of the storage variety.

Practically all of the eggs in cold storage are owned by western shippers and producers, and they are put in storage at a time when the supply of fresh eggs is so large all of it can not be sold.

HERO OF THE HOUR

MAKES POSSIBLE A MATERIAL REDUCTION IN HOUSEHOLD EXPENSES.

FIRELESS COOKER NOW POPULAR

Makes Palatable the Cheaper Cuts of Meat and Has Succeeded the Boycott in Many Chicago Homes.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Already the fireless cooker has succeeded the boycott in first honors in reducing the household meat bills of Chicagoans, the use of chuck, plate, round and other cheap cuts of meat being made possible by this new humble hero of the hour.

The discovery that about one-quarter of the meat of the steer has to sell for half the money for the whole animal set the boycotters to thinking that porterhouse steak is not all that is edible in a beef.

Then appeared the fireless cooker, either patented or home-made out of a cracker box lined with newspapers, and meat again entered the boycotter's diet, not the highest priced cuts, but others that have an equal amount of nutriment and are quite as appetizing when thoroughly cooked.

It is where the heat-insulated fireless cookers moved up front for recognition and laurels. Scientific tests proved that meats brought to a boiling point and then set in the "fireless" gained in flavor, lost almost nothing in weight and were cooked for one-tenth the amount of fuel required by the old way.

One committee of investigation to the Swift & Co. plant followed the distribution of cuts of a beef weighing 694 pounds dressed, and reported the prices and proceeds to be:

Cuts	Weight Lbs.	Price Per lb	Per cent of Total	Amt
ibs	66	17c	9.51	$11.22
oins	119	19½c	17.15	23.20
ounds	164	8c	23.63	13.12
hucks	170	7c	24.50	11.90
lates	86	5½c	12.39	4.73
hanks	29	4½c	4.18	1.31
lanks	27	5½c	3.89	1.48
uet	28	10c	4.03	2.80
rim'gs	5	4½c	.72	.23
	694		100	$69.99

"From the foregoing," says the report, "can plainly be seen the problem and the remedy. Extend the use of the cheaper cuts of meat."

WOLVES ATTACKED BOY

Lacerated Arm of An 8-Year-Old Must Be Amputated.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Feb. 8.—Clyde Morlen, 8 years old, was attacked by wolves yesterday and an arm was so badly lacerated that it will have to be amputated.

There were three of the animals in a cage of the city park menagerie and as the boy stood near the door one seized the boy's left arm and the two others fastened their teeth in his legs.

An attendant beat off the animals with a pitchfork.

Middletown, the Model Village.

GIVEN NO VERDICT

THE JURY IN THE CASE OF MRS. FORD, CHARGED WITH BLACKMAIL.

WOMAN AGAIN RELEASED ON BOND

Warriner's Testimony Said to Have Caused Disagreement—Case May Be Dropped, as the Prosecution Is Disgusted.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 7.—After twenty-four hours deliberation, the jury in the case of Mrs. Jeanette Stewart-Ford, charged with blackmailing Charles L. Warriner, defaulting local treasurer of the Big Four railroad, was unable to reach an agreement and was discharged.

Just how many ballots were taken was not said, but when they returned they reported that eight stood for acquittal and four were for conviction.

The unexpected end to the sensational case was explained by two of the jurymen as due to the fact that a majority of their colleagues refused to give any credit to the testimony of Warriner.

The moment the report was read, Mrs. Ford, who sat in the court room waiting the return of the jury, half rose to her feet and then sank back to her chair in a complete nervous collapse.

Her maid and a doctor were summoned and they soon revived her and took her home in a carriage.

She later told members of the press that she had hoped for an acquittal, that all Saturday night she sat by her window and fervently prayed for a favorable verdict.

"The future of the case is now in the hands of Prosecutor Hunt, and if he wishes another trial he may have it and in full," said Attorney Thorndyke yesterday.

"If Prosecutor Hunt, of Hamilton county, brings the same charge against Mrs. Jeannette Timmins Stewart Ford and prosecutes the case, as Mrs. Ford's attorney, I will go to Columbus and lay before the Ohio general assembly certain facts now in my possession which will bring the whole affair into the limelight of a legislative investigation.

"I think I have enough information to cause the general assembly to turn its lights toward Cincinnati and the Big Four offices; and I am positive that they will be surprised if they go deep enough in that.

"If the prosecutor wishes, we will try the case again, and I think I am on the right track when I say that if another jury is called we will acquit Mrs. Ford.

"She has been slandered and mistreated by everybody with whom she ever had dealings until she is little more than a physical wreck. I think she has had enough prosecuting."

Prosecutor Hunt announced last night that he expected to bring the woman to trial again within the next three weeks.

At the same time he intimated that he might abandon the case. He asserted that the result of the trial was due to a "species of diseased mentality which seemed to affect American jurors and prevent them from convicting a woman on any charge."

Pending her trial, Mrs. Ford was released under $2,500 bond, furnished by a holding company.

RUGS MUFFLED SOUND

Burglars Blow Safe in Carthage and Escape With Cash.

Carthage, Mo., Feb. 7.—Robbers entered the store of the Ramsay Mercantile company early Sunday morning, blew open the safe and escaped with $350 in cash and several other articles of value.

Almost $500 worth of fine rugs and cloaks were piled on the safe and saturated with water to muffle the sound of the explosion.

This is the largest of the numerous robberies perpetrated in this city and vicinity in the past week, which is probably the work of a gang of robbers.

Going to Keep Cool.

Silex, Mo., Feb. 9—Residents of Silex will have an opportunity to keep cool this summer, as a refrigerating plant is being installed here, which will furnish five tons of ice every twenty-four hours if desired. A local poultry and produce company concluded that it would be cheaper and better to have a plant than to depend on outside sources for cooling material. The plant will enable the company to handle dressed poultry during the entire year.

GIRL ENDED LIFE

A BUFFALO MISS WADES INTO RIVER AND SWEPT OVER NIAGARA CATARACT.

SHE SMILED AT WARNING CALLS

Note Left in Handbag on Shore Signed "Beatrice," Asks Forgiveness of Parents—Body Not Recovered.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Feb. 8.—A young woman, thought to be Miss Beatrice R. Snyder, of Buffalo, committed suicide yesterday by wading into the river just above Prospect Point and going over the American Falls. As her body swept over the brink of the cataract, she turned her face toward her would-be rescuers and smiled a farewell to them.

A park policeman paid scant attention to the woman when she first appeared on the path leading to the river bank. Then, as she began to run toward the river, it was too late to intercept her.

Without a moment's hesitation, she waded into the stream. She turned once and smiled toward the men who were calling to her to stop, and continued to move rapidly into deep water. In an instant she was whisked from her feet and carried rapidly toward the brink of the falls.

On the bank was found a handbag and in it this note:

"Mamma and Papa—May you both forgive me for bringing this awful disgrace upon you in these years of your life. Also may our Heavenly Father forgive all my sins. But I have been very good, thank God. You will find a slip for the money under your dresser scarf. With my heart full of love for all your kindness and tender love, good-by. Lovingly—Beatrice."

There was a card in the purse bearing the name Beatrice R. Snyder.

With the lower river jammed with ice and the jam increasing hourly, there is little hope that the body will ever be recovered.

Prices 65 Years Ago.

Palmyra, Mo., Feb. 9.—Although the early settlers had to contend with many hardships and privations, there were some compensations, or at least it would seem so today, in the fact that they could get necessities of life at prices which seem almost unbelievable at the present time.

Old bills found by John J. Suter while going through some papers which belonged to his father show prices which were paid during the winter of 1842-43. According to these bills a sack of salt sold for $2, butter was 6½ cents a pound, lard 3½ cents, bacon 3 cents a pound, beef 3 cents, and other things in proportion.

DOG MEAT AS FOOD

IT AND HORSE FLESH EATEN BY HORDES OF WORKMEN IN GERMANY.

MEAT OF EQUINE 6 CENTS POUND

That of the Canine Is One-Half Cent Dearer, Owing to the Scarcity of "Bow-Wows"—Conditions Are Miserable.

International News Service.

London, Feb. 5.—The miserable conditions of the German workmen throughout the provincial districts of that country are described by the correspondents of several of the leading local papers.

In several villages in Saxony the families of laborers subsist mainly on horse and dog meat. In some of the villages from twelve to eighteen horses are slaughtered a week, and the meat sells for about 6 cents a pound.

Dog meat is one-half cent dearer, owing to the scarcity of canines. Some of the butchers claim that many consumers use dog meat, as they regard it as a specific against pneumonia and tuberculosis.

One of the chief centers of horse consumption in Germany is Chemnitz, the third largest city in Saxony, of about 100,000 inhabitants. There are ten horse butchers in the place, who kill each at least twelve horses a week.

The largest concern of these kills about eighteen. Taking as an average twelve per butcher, we have 120 per week, at an average of 300 pounds solid meat gives a total of 36,000 pounds per week, or about two million pounds per annum.

In Schlettan, twenty miles from Crottendorf, a great deal of horse flesh is sold in the streets and bought by poor people.

But Saxony is not the only horse eating part of Germany. In Thuringia and in the Harz there is not a village without its horse butcher. In Bohemia, over the frontier from Crottendorf, horses are not only killed, but imported from Germany for slaughter.

DIED AT CARLSBAD

MRS. W. J. BLOCHBERGER ANSWERED FINAL SUMMONS LAST NIGHT.

HUSBAND WAS ON WAY TO BEDSIDE

Her Death Among Strangers Was Particularly Sad—Nothing Is Yet Known Regarding the Funeral Arrangements.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Mrs. Elizabeth Blochberger, wife of W. J. Blochberger, died at Carlsbad, N. M., last night of tuberculosis.

Mr. Blochberger received a telegram from Carlsbad Monday morning, stating his wife had suffered two hemorrhages, and requesting that he come at once. He left for Carlsbad at 1:45 o'clock this morning.

At 8 o'clock this morning a second telegram was received here, stating that Mrs. Blochberger had died suddenly last night. A telegram was sent to Mr. Blochberger at Emporia, Kas., in the hope of informing him at that place of the death of his wife.

Mrs. Blochberger had been ailing with lung trouble for the past year. Six months ago she went to Carlsbad for her health. The climate for a time proved beneficial, then again her condition would become worse. Two weeks ago it was thought she was getting along satisfactorily, but Monday, when the message announced she was sinking, it was feared death was not far distant.

Mrs. Blochberger was about 40 years of age. She was, before her marriage, Miss Elizabeth Heinrichs, of Centretown, Mo., where she was married to Mr. Blochberger some thirteen years ago.

Less than five years ago Mr. Blochberger moved to Sedalia from Cole Camp, where he had been engaged in business, since which time he has been in business here.

Mrs. Blochberger was a believer in the German Lutheran faith, but belonged to no lodge or society. Besides her husband, she leaves two children, Cletus and Walter, also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heinrichs, of California, Mo.; three brothers, John D. Heinrichs, of Pilot Grove, and Adam and Fred Heinrichs, of California, and a married sister, living in Iowa.

It is unknown what funeral arrangements will be made, but in all probability the body will be taken to California, where services will be held, after which burial will be made in the family burying ground at Centretown.

BODY UNDER THE FLOOR

Bloody Hatchet Found in Supposed Husband's Home; Man Sought.

New York, Feb. 8.—Beneath the concrete floor of the basement of an uptown apartment here yesterday was found the body of a woman who had been strangled to death after her head had been hacked by an ice pick or similar instrument.

The woman is believed to have been the wife of a janitor of the apartments who recently moved away. He was known both as Peterson and Tamsen or Thompson.

The police found his new quarters, but not the man himself and discovered a bloody hatchet in the kitchen of his new home. A girl found there, who would not talk, and a man named Pierre Loisel were detained.

INDICTED FOR BRIBERY

Former Official Said to Have Confessed to Grand Jury.

Pittsburg, Feb. 8.—True bills were returned by the grand jury yesterday charging conspiracy, bribery and perjury against President E. H. Jennings, F. A. Griffin, former vice president of the Columbia National bank; Charles Stewart, former select councilman; Max Leslie, county delinquent tax collector, and F. F. Nicoll, a capitalist.

The indictments were found upon a confession alleged to have been made by Griffin to the grand jury.

The cases involve the alleged payment of bribes to councilmen in 1908 to get their vote for an ordinance designating city depositories, of which the Columbia National bank was one.

GAIETY AT AN END

LENT BEGINS TOMORROW, TO BE CONCLUDED EASTER SUNDAY, MARCH 27TH.

FORTY DAYS' SEASON OF FASTING

Swell Dinners, Theater Parties, Socials for Churches, Euchres, and Other Like Pleasures Are to Be Cut Out.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Social festivities in the national capital will be almost entirely suspended during the next forty days, as the season of penitence ushered in by Ash Wednesday tomorrow is universally observed by official society of Washington.

Ash Wednesday will be observed in the Catholic, Episcopalian and Lutheran churches of the world, with all the solemn ceremonies from which the day derives its name.

The ashes used in the day's ceremonies by the Catholics are obtained by burning the remains of palms blessed on Palm Sunday of last year. The blessing and administration of the ashes takes place before the mass.

In the blessing, four ancient prayers are used, and the ashes are sprinkled with holy water and fumigated with incense. Then the faithful approach the altar, and the priest, dipping his thumb into the ashes, marks upon the forehead of each, or in the case of tonsured clerics, upon the place of tonsure, the sign of the cross, saying in Latin, "Remember, man, thou art but dust, and unto dust thou shalt return."

In many churches the priest also deposits small portions of ashes on slips of paper placed on the altar rail by persons who desire the ashes for future pious uses. The celebrant himself, be he even a bishop or a cardinal, receives the ashes from some other priest, usually the highest in dignity of those present.

The observance of Ash Wednesday is of very great antiquity. The administration of the ashes was not made originally to all the faithful, but only to public penitents who appeared before the church door on the first day of Lent, in penitential garb and with bare feet.

Out of humility and affection, the friends of the penitents, although not in the same condition, used to join them, expressing a similar outward contrition, and offering their foreheads also to be sprinkled with the ashes.

The number of these persons gradually increased until at length the administration of ashes was extended to the whole congregation and the ritetook its present form.

His purpose was to offer himself as a sacrifice, and later, when rescued by fellow workmen he cut portions of his body off with a knife and tried to cut his throat.

He severed his windpipe and almost killed himself. He has a chance for recovery at the hospital.

A BIG SENSATION

TESTIMONY OF NURSE CAUSED STIR IN SWOPE INVESTIGATION THIS MORNING.

HYDE WANTED TO BE EXECUTOR

Tablet Given for Digestion Was Followed by Convulsions, Which Speedily Were Ended in Death of Patient.

Kansas City, Feb. 8.—Sensation followed sensation today at the inquest at Independence into the death of Col. Thomas H. Swope.

A few days before Col. Swope died Dr. Hyde asked the millionaire's nurse to try and persuade her patient to name him (Hyde) as one of his executors, according to the testimony given by Miss Pearl Kellar, the nurse.

Then she told of happenings on the morning that Col. Swope died; of the giving of a capsule that apparently was a digestive tablet, which was followed by convulsions within twenty minutes, the symptoms of the attack being diagnosed by Dr. Hyde as apoplexy, the treatment given and finally his death, was told in a quiet, unassuming manner.

Miss Kellar's testimony produced a decided sensation in the crowded court room.

Dr. Hyde, his lips tightly closed, watched the witness closely as she told her story, while Mrs. Logan O. Swope, his mother-in-law, closely veiled, listened attentively from another part of the room.

Maxine Elliott Took a Liking to the Lad and Will Send Him to the Military Academy at Faribault, Minnesota.

New York, Feb. 8.—There was a happy urchin on the St. Paul express yesterday. He was on his way to school with his future brighter than he ever dreamed it could be.

Miss Elliott first saw him last season when she was playing here. Every evening on her arrival at the theatre a red-headed newsboy was on the spot to open her carriage door, and doffing his ragged cap, to hand her neatly folded evening papers.

The boy refused to take any pay for them and Miss Elliott always accepted them with a smile.

The boy's real name is Aloysius. He was born in Boston, but came here two years ago upon the death of his mother. "Rusty" will be educated at a military academy at Faribault, Minn.

LIVING COST BARS THEM

Domestic Unhappiness of Others Also Frightens Single Folks.

Doylestown, Pa., Feb. 7.—A stranger in town interviewed as many old maids and bachelors as he could find to ascertain why so few marriage licenses were granted last month. He wanted to know whether the falling off was due to the present high prices of the necessaries of life.

One bachelor informed him that he would be willing to marry if ony one could prove to him that two could live on the same income as one. An older culprit said that the miserable examples he saw about him had frightened him away.

German Reciprocity Proclamation.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—The president today issued a proclamation in which German goods imported into the United States are declared to be entitled to the minimum rates of duty.

HAD FINE SERVICE

LADIES OF THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH SUNDAY EVENING.

KING'S DAUGHTERS WERE USHERS

Mrs. A. A. Ridenour Had Charge of Service—Sermon Was Preached by Mrs. Harold Cooper, Wife of the Pastor.

(From Monday's Daily)

That the ladies of Sedalia can fill the churches better than the men was clearly demonstrated by the packed audience which last night gathered at the First Congregational church to attend the service which had been announced as being conducted entirely by the members of the feminine sex.

The young ladies of the society of King's Daughters, who had charge of the ushering, had quite a task to seat the congregation, but they certainly managed it in a way that manifested their ability.

The service was in charge of Mrs. A. A. Ridenour, and after prayer by Mrs. W. E. Hurlbut and Scripture reading by Mrs. Fannie Smith, the sermon was given by the wife of the pastor, Mrs. Harold Cooper.

Every word could be heard distinctly in every part of the church, and during the sermon a fine collection of lantern slides, illustrating the sermon, were thrown on the screen.

The Rev. Cooper announced that in the near future the men of the church would have the opportunity of conducting a similar service.

At the Bible School of the First Christian Church.

(From Monday's Daily)

There were 348 in attendance, with an offering of $32.93, yesterday. This was the nineteenth anniversary of class No. 13, taught by Mrs. Dalby, with an offering of $20. She has never missed a Sunday when in town or had sickness but supplied a substitute, nor never late at school in all of this nineteen years.

We have just bought 200 song books. Prof. Farris leads the singing and M. D. Looney the orchestra. We expect to put on the third wagonette on South Ingram avenue to the city limits to accommodate those that do not attend any other Bible school. Our aim for Easter is 500 in school and an offering of $200.

The next move will be the employment of a paid superintendent and assistant pastor. Our beloved pastor, Brother Kokendoffer, has too much to do and must have help.—W. W. Herold, Superintendent; W. O. Terry, Assistant Superintendent.

CHILD OF SERVANT

IT WAS TAKEN BY WIFE TO SAVE THE REPUTATION OF HER "LIEGE LORD."

REAL MOTHER CHANGES HER MIND

Foster Mother Deceived Even Nearest Neighbors as to Parentage—Caused Scandal of Huge Proportions.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 7.—To conceal from her neighbors a newly found skeleton in the family closet, Mrs. Samuel A. Taylor, of Belleville, arranged to take and to treat as her own the expected child of her household servant, Mary Bowman.

To aid in the deception of the neighbors, Mrs. Taylor remained indoors for several weeks and recently caused a woman nurse to pay several visits to her house. She sent the housemaid away, and when the child was born in a St. Louis hospital, she smuggled in into her home and exhibited it as her own.

Her effort came to naught Saturday, when her husband was arraigned on charges brought by the girl, who had changed her mind about parting from her child.

Besides the warrant which was served on Taylor, there is a second warrant, which has not been served, in which Taylor and his wife are charged with kidnaping the infant.

The strange arrangement by which the wife sought to spare the husband, and to keep the tongue of scandal from their home, was described to a reporter by Taylor, after he had obtained a continuance in Magistrate Evans' court at Belleville.

"Mary Bowman came to our home a year ago," he said. "Early in this winter my wife suspected that all was not right, and questioned Mary.

What Mary told her about me she would not believe until I myself admitted it to her.

"Then, instead of reproaching me, she said we must handle this matter in such a manner as not to cause others to talk about us. She said Mary must go away, and that when the child was born it must be passed as our own.

"Mary went to a hospital in St. Louis, and early in January the baby, a boy, was born there. As soon as it was able to be removed, she caused it to be brought to our house, and it was announced in the neighborhood that a child had been born to my wife and me. A woman nurse helped by backing up my wife's story, and apparently none of the neighbors suspected anything wrong."

Mary Bowman was not in court Saturday, and it could not be learned what influenced her to discard the agreement which Taylor says she made with him and his wife.

The girl went to Chief of Police Nebgen, of Belleville, Friday and outlined her charges against the Taylors. It was decided to arrest the husband first, and to dissuade the girl, if possible, from prosecuting Mrs .Taylor on the kidnaping charge.

The Taylors have no children of their own. Mary Bowman is 19 years old.

BOYCOTT ON HATS

THE MEN REFUSE TO BE HELD UP AND WHY SHOULDN'T WE LEADERS ARGUE?

SUMMER NEAR IS HINT IN DENVER

Good Looking Hair, False or Real, Sufficient, but the Price of Millinery Nowadays Is Simply Outrageous.

Denver, Feb. 7.—Women of Denver have started a boycott against the milliners.

Mrs. Claud E. Griffey and Mrs. Edward L. Prentiss, two of the younger matrons in Denver society, have announced that they stand ready to be known as the leaders of the boycott, and scores of their friends have made known their determination to step into line. The trouble is over the price of hats.

"We have been imposed upon long enough," the women announce, "and we are tired of paying $50 for a hat we once could buy for $10. It is as absurd as any meat or coal trust that ever existed.

"It is nearing summer, anyway," said Mrs. Griffey, "and any woman with good looking hair, false or real, looks well without a hat."

"And hair," exclaimed Mrs. Preniss, "why, the way they charge us for hair is something to marvel at, outrageous. But think of not being able to get the simplest hat for less than $25. If that isn't a holdup game, I'd like to know what is."

"The men boycott people who hold them up," put in Mrs. Griffey, "and why can't the women?"

JOY OVER DIVORCE

HOTEL OWNER INVITES THREE TOWNS TO HELP HIM CELEBRATE.

WRS JUST GLAD TO BE FREE AGAIN

Worth Thirty Thousand Dollars, His Vent to Happiness Leaves Him Seven Thousand After His "Jubilee."

Madison, Ill., Feb. 7.—Zeiva Staishim, owner of a hotel at Madison, Ill., and reputed to be worth $30,000, Saturday became so ecstatically joyful when granted a divorce at Edwardsville he at once spent $23,000 to show his feeling in the matter.

Of the amount $20,000 was voluntarily given to his three children, who are now in Austria with their mother.

Sending out couriers from Edwardsville to gather his friends at Madison and Granite City, Staishim started homeward, lavishing money as he went.

At Madison he celebrated with hundreds of friends and acquaintances and then sent through the byways and highways of Granite City to get still others to aid him in making merry.

Summoning as many as his hotel would hold, Staishim spent the remainder of the evening there showing them how happy he was to be a free man again.

Mrs. Staishim recently returned to Austria with her children. Staishim, who is 35 years old, charged in his petition she deserted him. After he filed his petition for divorce he spent a considerable part of his time telling friends and acquaintances what he would do when he got the divorce. At other times he appeared to be consumed with anxiety lest the divorce be denied him.

To all he vigorously denied he had any intention of remarrying. Saturday when Judge Hadley handed down Staishim's divorce, along with sixteen others, the enthusiastic Austrian immediately got beside himself with joy.

In the court room he began his arrangements for the celebration by sending out runners to prepare the feast which was to entertain three towns, the total population of which will exceed 15,000 people.

When Staishim got to Madison and viewed the preparations he determined, though the crowds were dense, there were not enough to help him properly celebrate.

Pausing only long enough to thank Judge Hadley for granting him his liberation, Staishim rushed off to the neighboring town of Granite City. There he got guests by the hundreds and sent them on to his hotel, while he went after still more.

HE'S MISSOURI LAD

FORTY-SEVEN YEARS AGO LEFT HOME AT FAYETTE, HOWARD COUNTY.

THEN ONLY FIFTEEN YEARS OLD

Went to Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1863, and Now He's Coming Home an Admiral in the United States Navy.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 7.—Forty-seven years ago a boy of 15 years of age left home in Fayette, Howard county, Mo. He headed for the navy in 1863, going to Annapolis.

He went to the station carrying what he had already learned to call his "dunnage." The father and mother, proud, but in tears, went along, and there was quite a little crowd to see the lad start on his long journey.

Now that Missourian is coming home, after forty-seven years. He is coming home on the battleship Tennessee, with his own pennant flying from the peak, with seven cruisers in his wake, more than 3,000 enlisted men and officers, some of them of flag rank, watching every move he makes.

His name is Uriel Sebree and he is rear admiral in the United States navy.

"It is quite a difference between brother's going away and coming back," said Frank Sebree yesterday, speaking of the homeward bound voyage his brother, the admiral, is making from Asiatic waters.

"I would like to see him bring his fleet in. I saw him go away to get it, a little bit of a fellow, full of pluck and Missouri grit. We used to think he would get on, but none of us thought he would get to be an admiral."

THIS MAN'S PANTS

BELONGED TO SOME FELLOW IN ROOM WITH WOMAN WHO WAS NOT HIS WIFE.

FINDS MISTAKE AND ALSO $2,300

Husband Comes Home Unexpectedly and Wife Develops Sudden Case of Headache That Results in Seeking Druggist.

Collinsville, Ill., Feb. 7.—A resident of Collinsville returned home from a trip very late and entirely unexpectedly the other night. He had intended being away a week, but transacted his business in a shorter period and decided to return late Thursday night.

Thinking to surprise the dear companion of his joys and sorrows he let himself quietly into the house with his night key, removed his shoes and stole upstairs. At the door of the room he and his wife occupied he tapped gently and entered.

His wife had retired, and, not wishing to disturb her by turning on the light, he undressed in the dark and composed himself for rest.

The lady, however, developed a violent headache.

Let us call the L. C., otherwise Leading Citizen, Harry, that not being his name.

"Harry, love," she said, "my head aches so badly it just seems as if it would split. Won't you go down to the drug store and get some powders for it?"

Forthwith Harry tumbled out of bed, groped about for his clothing and departed for the drug store.

It was when he came to pay for the powders that the denouement came. In the pocket of the trousers he wore Harry found a roll of bills, which, being counted, was found to total $2,300. He was greatly astonished, as he knew he had had less than a dollar in currency when he had reached home a few minutes previously.

Then he looked down at the trousers. They fitted very well, but the material was a trifle different in pattern from those he had worn.

Harry took the powders home, but did not turn on the light. Neither did he ask any questions or make any remarks. He left the house and has since been living with his mother.

On Friday he deposited the money in a Collinsvile bank, where the owner, or anyone who clams to be the owner, may have it on demand. So far no one has asked for it. Residents of the town are expected to keep keen eyes on the bank window, where inquiries would be made.

(From Monday's Daily)

W. W. Blain and C. C. Kelly represent him.

In the answer Mr. Kellerman asks that the decree be denied her and given to him. He makes some forty or more allegations, among them being these:

That the plaintiff cursed and abused him; tore her engagement ring from her finger and threw it on the floor with curses; fussed, quarreled and cursed all about her on one occasion from 7:30 p. m. until midnight; assaulted him, beat, scratched and tried to bite him; accused him of cheating in a checker game; reprimanded S. R. Smith, local manager of the Bell Telephone company, for contemplating the establishment of a switchboard at Beaman; accused defendant of murdering two wives, and that she deserted him in the midst of a great crowd at the world's fair at St. Louis.

COAL WILL GO UP

MINERS ARE DEMANDING A WAGE INCREASE OF TEN PER CENT.

A GREAT STRIKE IS IMMINENT

Unless an Agreement Is Reached the Most Serious of All Miners' Troubles Is Bound to Occur by April 1.

Associated Press.

Toledo, O., Feb., 5.—President Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, said today there will be a general suspension of work in the bituminous coal fields of the country April 1, if agreements on the wage scale are not reached by that date

The international executive board of the International Mine Workers met here today, President Lewis having notified the members when the wage conference adjourned last night in a dead lock over the admission of the Illinois miners, in the absence of the operators of that state

It is conceded by officials of the union and the coal operators that the only thing that can prevent the most extensive strike in the history of bituminous coal mining is the calling of a special convention to meet the conditions arising from the failure of the joint conference here to organize and fix a scale for the central competitive field. It was admitted that one of the important matters discussed was the question of calling another national convention.

By many of the leaders of the miners convention is held to be necessary because the demand for a 10 per cent advance in wages is general, and under the Indianapolis convention decision no district has a right to sign a scale of wages with the operators until all districts have conferred and signed. In the opinion of some of the leadres the wishes of the rank and file of the United Mine Workers can be ascertained by referendum vote if a convention can not be held.

STORIES OF ANTS

IT IS SAID THEY COME NEXT TO HUMAN BEINGS IN POINT OF INTELLIGENCE.

THAT OR HIGH FORM OF INSTINCT

A Fact That Ants Are Able to Act as Nurses—Claimed That Slave Trading Is Carried On by the Insects.

International News Service.

London, Feb. 5.—Ants were described by Mr. H. Hill, a noted entomologist, in a lecture at the London institution recently, as coming next to human beings in point of intelligence.

"Whether they actually have any intelligence, or whether what they do is simply the outcome of a very high form of instinct," said Mr. Hill, "is a matter of considerable dispute.

"A great deal of investigation has shown that they find their way about entirely by the sense of smell. Whether they can communicate with each other is questionable, but a certain kind of ant has a curious instrument which enables it to produce a high note or squeak when it is angry and a pleasant low note when it is pleased.

"The male ant has no memory, and without the assistance of the female it would be unable to find its way back to the nest.

"It is an undoubted fact that ants are able to act as sick nurses. If an ant is paralyzed by formic acid being spurted over it, other ants lick the acid off, and the paralyzed insect is restored to health.

"Before I admit that to be an act of kindness I should like to know if the taste of formic acid is pleasant to the ant."

Describing the slave trading carried on by ants, Mr. Hill said that it had a demoralizing effect on the Amazon ants, for they had become entirely dependent on their slaves.

If two or three were put into a box by themselves they would starve, even though they had plenty of food, but if one of the slaves were put with them for a few hours a day to clean and feed them they would lead a happy life.

Mr. Hill went on to describe how ants make their nests.

"When the construction of a nest is contemplated." he said, "several of the insects sit on two leaves until they bend towards one another. Then the ants spin silk from leaf to leaf, and when the supply of a number of grubs has been requisitioned, a kind of paper-like material connects the leaves."

DOWN INTO EARTH

HOSPITAL WAS THUS PLUNGED WHEN AN UNUSED MINE "CAVED IN."

DISAPPEARED IN A FEW SECONDS

Carried With It a Patient and the Family of Dr. Wessely, the Resident Surgeon—"Loud Roar" Followed Accident.

International News Service.

Vienna, Feb. 5.—An extraordinary catastrophe recently occurred in Raiby, Carinthia, when the local miners' hospital, a two-story building, was suddenly swallowed up in the earth, with seven occupants, including a patient and the family of Dr. Wessely, the resident surgeon.

It is believed that a disused gallery existed in one portion of the mine, directly under the hospital, and that this caused the subsidence.

Eye witnesses say that the building disappeared in a few seconds, "with a loud roar," and every trace of the hospital was so completely obliterated that the people who saw it disappear believed they had lost their senses, and were the victims of hallucination.

When rescue parties arrived they found a deep depression in the earth where the hospital had stood, but no sign of the building itself. A stream which flowed near by was diverted owing to the catastrophe, so that the depression speedily became a miniature lake.

Miners are now trying to divert the water in order to sink a shaft in the hope of finding the buried building and the bodies of the victims.

MR. D. B. BULKLEY IS THE TEACHER

Losing Side in Contest to Increase Membership Entertained the Winners—Passed a Delightful Evening.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

The young men's Bible class of the First M. E. church, of which Mr. D. B. Bulkley is teacher, gave a thoroughly enjoyable banquet Friday night in the parlors of the church.

A contest to increase the membership closed last Sunday, the class being divided in four sections, with a captain over each section. The losing side was to serve a banquet in honor of the winners.

Mr. Ranken Peyatt was the captain of the winning team and they were banqueted by the losers.

Guests were invited as follows: Rev. Grant Robbins, District Superintendent W. F. Jones, Sunday School Superintendent E. D. Holbert, Assistant Sunday School Superintendent J. B. Brown and Y. M. C. A. Secretary J. H. Piper.

A business meeting was held from 7:45 to 8:15, at which time the doors were thrown open to the dining parlor, and fifty-five young men beheld a room decorated in the colors of the winning team, tables with napkins and carnations to match, and an orchestra of five pieces sending forth sweet strains of music.

The banquet was served in courses and consisted of most everything eatable that could satisfy the appetite of a young man.

After the banquet and a few jolly remarks by the invited guests, a picture was taken of the class. A short devotional meeting was then held, and all went home with the satisfaction of knowing that the young men's Bible class is not only the largest class of young men in Sedalia, but that when they attempt things they do them right.

This class meets every Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the First M. E. church. Young men are made welcome and we cordially invite you to come and join us. If it is not possible for you to join us, make us a visit. We will appreciate it and it may do you good.—A Guest.

'SHE TOLD THINGS'

JOANNA SOUTHCOTT CLAIMED TO BE POSSESSED OF SUPERNATURAL GIFTS.

ONCE WAS ORDINARY DOMESTIC

And Now Alice Seymour Writes Two Volumes, Saying World Is on the Eve of Early Predictions Coming True.

International News Service.

London, Feb. 5.—A hundred years ago, in Devonshire, lived an extraordinary woman—Joanna Southcott. From a domestic servant she became a prophetess. She declared that she had supernatural gifts, writing and dictating prophecies and gathering together 100,000 adherents. Now, when this strange woman's claims are well-night forgotten, a woman writer, Alice Seymour, whom "silence can hold no longer," declares in two remarkable volumes just published, called "The Express," Nos. 1 and 2, that the world is on the eve of Joanna Southcott's predictions coming true.

The dramatic feature of the prophecies is that Joanna Southcott sealed up a box one hundred years ago. From that day to this the box—of which a photograph appears in the first volume of the book—has remained unopened. The prophetess said that this box should not be tampered with until it was called for by the bishops. Its opening, it is said, will convince the nation of the truth of the visitation which she predicted.

What Joanna Southcott said, according to the writer of these books, is that, beginning in the fourth year of this century, divine proof would be given that her claims were supernatural. Since 1904, it has been pointed out, "records have followed records." There have been great floods and storms, droughts and six great earthquakes in two years.

These "judgments" will go on, it is claimed, for ten years, becoming particularly severe in 1911. In 1802, it is told, the prophetess after a "strange command" held a dispute with Satan for ten days. It is these ten days of trial, turned into years, which the world is now undergoing, the authoress declares.

"The fabric of the earth I'll shake." This phrase, used by the prophetess many times, is taken by the authoress to apply to the great earthquakes culminating in the Messina disaster.

The visitation would come in strange weather, the prophetess also foretold. "Everybody has been compelled to notice the strange phenomena in the weather during the last four years," comments the authoress. How seriously trade has been affected, and how sudden and severe have been the surprises of climate change and remarkable record of temperature.

"When the eastern war appears, then know the end is near," wrote Joanna Southcott. This, says the writer, refers to the great war between Russia and Japan. The prophetess also declared that England, "unbelieving," would be smitten with sickness. "All over England," says the authoress, "doctors have recently been almost worked to death."

The curious title of the two volumes is due to the fact that Joanna Southcott laid down that the nations should "be warned in two expresses, to be published by the hand of a woman, in the tenth year."

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

PLAN NEW SYSTEM

REPRESENTATIVE OF GREAT GERMAN FINANCIAL HOUSE IS IN NEW YORK.

TO INVADE REPUBLIC OF MEXICO

Scheme to Build Railway From Atlantic Coast to the Heart of Sister Nation and Also Establish New Steamer Line.

International News Service.

New York, Feb. 5.—The great banking house of Bleichroeder, of Berlin, one of the chief financial institutions of the world, has sent a representative to the United States to inaugurate a vast scheme of transportation and industrial development in Mexico.

Baron Hans Von Bleichroeder is the representative and has arrived in New York to take active direction of the enterprise. He will study the railroad situation in the United States with a view to establishing close relations between some of the systems of this country and the system his company proposes to build in Mexico. Also the scheme contemplates the establishment of a new line of steamships between New York and the ports of Germany, to be operated in connection with the proposed through railroad route from New York to the heart of Mexico.

The baron intimates that negotiations may be opened with the Edwin Hawley group of railroad financiers as well as with B. F. Yoakum, who now has lines extending from St Louis to the Mexican border at Brownsville, Texas.

Should this linking of United States railroads with roads in Mexico be made, freight will be unloaded from the Bleichroeder ships in New York or Newport News to trains and transported in bond across the United States to its destination without breaking the bulk.

'THE WORK OF GOD'

'TIS IS THE TITLE OF LATEST STORY OF TOLSTOI, THE RUSSIAN WRITER.

IT HAS TO DEAL WITH A LEGEND

King Had Seen Everything Possible for the Human Eye to See Except God—Lesson Taught by a Humble Shepherd.

BY STEPHEN BURNETT.

International News Service.

Berlin, Feb. 5.—The latest story of Leo Tolstoi, which has reached Germany, deals with a legend, entitled "The Work of God," which he is accustomed to tell the companions of his walks in the neighborhood of Jassnaja-Poljana.

The legend, as Tolstoi tells it, is as follows:

In a far land there lived a king, who was filled with care as old age approached. "I have," he said, "during my life enjoyed everything and seen everything possible for the human eye to see. But there is one I have never in my life seen, and that is—God. Him, I will see!" And turning to his dignitaries and priests he commanded them, on pain of being thrown into prison and heavily punished, to show him God before three days had passed.

The courtiers sadly waited the expiration of the time, and at the end of it were summoned before the king.

They continued to keep silence, and the king was about to order them to prison when a poor shepherd at that moment came before the king and addressed him.

"Sire," he prayed, "grant me a wish."

"It is well," replied the king, "but remember, your life is at stake."

And the shepherd led the king to a place, pointed to the blazing sun and said, "Look up!"

The king raised his head and tried to look at the shining mass, but the sun's rays dazzled him and he closed his eyes.

"What do you mean," he asked, "would you have me blinded?"

Thereupon said the shepherd: "Sire, that is only one of the creations of God, a single ray of His glory, a small corner of His burning throne. How, then, can you demand to see God with your weak and weeping eyes? You must endeavor to see God with other eyes."

The king was pleased and said: "I honor the intelligence of your soul. Answer me, therefore, the following question, What was before God?"

The shepherd thought for a while, and then spoke: "I pray you, Sire, not to be angry, but—count."

The king began—"One, two—"

"No, no," interrupted the shepherd, "you don't count right; you don't begin to count before one."

"How is that possible?" objected the king; "there is nothing before one."

"A wise word, Sire," said the shepherd; "there was nothing before God."

The king, still more pleased, continued: "I will reward you richly in any case, but answer me one more question, What does God do?"

"I will reply," said the shepherd, "but first change clothes with me."

The king did so, taking off his royal robes and putting them on the shepherd, and then assuming the shepherds garments.

And the shepherd mounted to the throne, took the sceptre in his hand, and pointing to the king at the foot of the throne, said:

"That is what God does. One He raises to the throne, another he drives away from it." And he resumed his shepherd's clothing.

Thereafter the king stood deep in thought. At last the king raised his head and exclaimed in tones of joy, "Yes, now I see God."

A school boy of 15 appeared before the court for juvenile delinquents at Munich yesterday on a charge of writing threatening letters to the minister of education and the prince regent.

For forging a school report the lad was punished by being relegated to a lower class, whereupon he meditated vengeance. He wrote an anonymous letter to the minister, declaring that if his barbarous teacher was not removed within three days 4,000 armed men would march, Russian fashion, upon the minister and would massacre and destroy all of them.

The letter to the regent began: "Your majesty is urgently requested to see that this teacher is dismissed, our request to the minister having been disregarded." It was signed, "With best regards from 4600 workmen."

The writer was sentenced to three weeks' imprisonment.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine.

Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to INSIST upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle-wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it under oath. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, giving rise to frequent headache, backache, dragging-down pain or distress and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nervine and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostation, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

It's foolish and often dangerous to experiment with new or but slightly tested medicines—sometimes urged upon the afflicted as "just as good" or better than "Favorite Prescription." The dishonest dealer sometimes insists that he knows what the proffered substitute is made of, but you don't and it is decidedly for your interest that you should know what you are taking into your stomach and system expecting it to act as a curative. To him its only a difference of profit. Therefore, insist on having Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

ADDS TO MYSTERY

LETTER RECEIVED BY PROSECUTING ATTORNEY ADDS TO SWOPE COMPLICATIONS.

HE SAYS HE IS DEAD MAN'S SON

Deceased Muli-Millionaire Was Supposed to Have Been a Bachelor, and the Missive Surprised All His Friends.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 5.—Prosecuting Attorney Virgil Conkling today received the following letter, dated Martinsburg, W. Va., February 2:

"To Mr. Virgil Conkling: Sir—Wish you would give me particulars surrounding my father's (Thomas H. Swope) death. By so doing you will greatly oblige. Very truly yours—Elmore C. Swope, Care Box 636 Martinsburg, W. Va."

Should the writer of this letter be able to prove that he is a son of the late Thomas H. Swope, the Kansas City multi-millionaire, further complications will be added to this already involved case.

"I was greatly surprised at the receipt of this letter," said Conkling. "The writer is not illiterate, and the manner in which the request is made indicates he believes that possibly he is a son of the late Col. Swope.

"The letter differs from the ordinary run of those from lost heirs, in that the writer made a single simple statement and asks for information. The usual letters of this sort breathe strongly of the relationship, discarded wives, etc., and the writer of this letter probably means business.

"I know nothing whatever as to his claims that he is a son of Col. Swope, as we all believe that Col. Swope never married. I shall reply to this letter Monday."

Friends of the late Col. Swope declared that the writer could not possibly be the son of the man whose death is now being investigated.

SHUT OFF LIGHTS

SOCIALIST DID IN ORDER TO DEMONSTRATE POWER IN INDUSTRIAL WORLD.

TRAGEDY IS NARROWLY AVERTED

Wealthy Parisian Undergoing Operation for Appendicitis When Lamps From "Auto" Were Brought Into Use.

International News Service.

Paris, Feb. 5.—A remarkable tragedy was narrowly averted in one of the Paris hospitals the other night, when Pataud, the famous socialist, shut off the electric lights in several sections of the city in order to demonstrate his power in the industrial world.

A wealthy Parisian was undergoing an operation for appendicitis, which was of an unusually delicate and dangerous nature.

In the middle of the operation an attendant gave the surgeon a message which had been received by telephone, stating that the electric light would be cut off in ten minutes.

Fortunately the surgeon's motor car was at the door, and the powerful acetylene lamps with which it was equipped were carried into the operating theater just before the electric light failed.

Had the message not been received the patient would probably have died during the time it would have taken to procure other illumination of the operating room.

S.S.S. FOR RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is in reality an internal inflammation; a diseased condition of the blood cells which supply the nourishment and strength necessary to sustain our bodies. The disease is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, which comes from indigestion, weak kidneys, constipation, and other irregularities of the system. This uric acid produces an inflamed and acrid condition of the blood, and the circulation, instead of nourishing the different portions of the body, continually deposits into the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, the irritating and pain-producing acid with which it is filled. Then follow the painful and torturing symptoms of Rheumatism. We do not claim for S. S. S. that it is anything more than a first class blood purifier, and that is just what is needed to cure Rheumatism. S. S. S. goes into the circulation, and by neutralizing the uric acid and driving it from the blood, effectually and surely removes the cause of Rheumatism. S.S.S. strengthens and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, causing pain and agony throughout the system, it becomes an invigorating, nourishing fluid, furnishing health and vigor to every portion of the body, and permanently relieving the suffering caused by Rheumatism. S.S.S. is purely vegetable and will not injure the most delicate system. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

AFTER LENGTHY TRIAL THE FORUM CLUB IS PUT OUT OF BUSINESS.

DECISION RENDERED LAST NIGHT

Judge Hoffman in Circuit Court Found That the Organization Had Violated the Law and Revoked Its Charter.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

With almost two hundred negroes eagerly listening, Circuit Judge Louis Hoffman, at 9:40 o'clock last night, rendered a decision dissolving the Central Missouri Forum club, a negro organization, with a few white members, and knocked sky high the club's charter and franchise, which he had issued on application several months ago.

The decision came several minutes after the close of a vehement and forceful argument by Prosecuting Attorney H. D. Dow, who for the past two days, assisted by Judge George F. Longan, had made a determined fight to have the club's charter revoked.

One hundred and ten witnesses had been subpoenaed to testify in the case, most of them being called to the stand. The hearing of evidence was begun Friday. It was not concluded until 7 o'clock last evening.

Then the arguments began. Judge George F. Longan, for the prosecution, made the opening speech. He was followed by Judge John D. Bohling for the defense, who in turn was followed by Homer G. Phillips, another of the defendant's counsel and manager of the club. The arguments were closed by Mr. Dow, whose last plea for the extinguishing of the club was one of the most valient ever made by a Pettis county prosecutor.

It required a very brief time for Judge Hoffman to decide, he revoking the charter in the following words:

"It is considered and adjudged by the court that the defendant corporation be dissolved and prohibited from exercising its corporate rights and privileges, and its charter for naught held, at the relator's cost."

The introduction of testimony Saturday was of the same nature as that of the previous day. Witness after witness told of the sale of liquor and pool playing at the club's quarters, of the frequenting of the place by minors and other illegal practices, which many witnesses told had been carried on since the club's inception.

All during the day the court room was filled with eager spectators, all of whom wondered as to the probable result of the case. Last night the crowd grew larger, and as Judge Hoffman pronounced the words that forfeited the franchise the crowd moved slowly away.

The Forum club was organized several months ago. Homer G. Phillips, a negro attorney, was one of the prime organizers and was the club's manager. Although the club is a negro organization, a number of white men belonged.

Among those called to the stand Saturday was Al Wheeler, who on the previous day told on the witness stand he had seen two white men in the club rooms, one of whom was a man named Sullivan. The witness was interrogated as to which Sullivan he had seen in the club, and he replied it was John H. Sullivan, the Second ward alderman, and not John L. Sullivan, the county collector.

MR. LATOUR HEARD FROM

Sailed From New York Yesterday on European Trip.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Mrs. Oscar Ott Saturday received a letter from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Latour, who left Sedalia recently for a tour abroad, sent from New York city, in which they stated they had an elegant trip reaching the metropolis and would set sail yesterday noon for the Holy Land.

Mr. and Mrs. Latour, while in Chicago, had an enjoyable visit with their two sons, and after reaching New York met Arthur Deutsch, a former Sedalian, known as D. V. Arthur, who married Mary Cahill, the actress.

Mr. Latour and Mr. Arthur took supper at one of New York's leading clubs, each enjoying the visit immensely.

WON THIRD PRIZE

FIDELITY COUNCIL OF THE K. & L. OF S. GETS PREMIUM OF $150.

THE SECURED 154 NEW MEMBERS

With 2,200 Councils Competing Fidelity Council Makes Remarkable Showing—Now Has 660 Members.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

With 2,200 councils in the United States and Canada competing, Fidelity council No. 153, Knights and Ladies of Security, of this city, has been declared the winner of the third prize, consisting of $150 in cash, offered by the supreme council of the order for the largest increase in membership for the three months, ending on December 31, last.

The notice of Fidelity council's award was received Saturday by Mrs. A. I. Mayberry, secretary of the council.

During the three months Fidelity council added 154 new names to the roster of membership, while during the following month—January—fifty new names were added, making the total membership of the council now approximately 660.

The increase in membership necessitated changing the rank of the council from that of No. 19 to a noticeable position in the supreme council's list of "The Big Ten."

The contest for increasing the membership was inaugurated by the supreme council last October. On October 11 a new list of officers took their respective stations, Dr. Ferguson being the newly-elected president.

He set out with a vim and determination to add 100 new names and instilled in each and every member of the council that same spirit. Every meeting night witnessed a class of new members to be initiated until over 200 application cards had been presented, fifty of which members will be initiated this month.

Fidelity council is one of the most select and strongest orders in the city. Its membership comprises some of Sedalia's very best citizens and coupled with the number of Queen City council gives the order a stronghold of 1,188 beneficiary members in Sedalia and 100 or more social members.

THE WOMAN'S BUILDING

"Tom" W. Bast Is Preparing Plans for $30,000 Structure.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

T. W. Bast, the architect, is completing the plans for the woman's building at the Missouri state fair grounds, and will have them finished within the next ten days.

The building will be constructed of brick, with either a slate or tile roof, probably the latter. In it will be a ladies' rest room, reception room, a dining hall, lecture room and several other rooms, also aparments for the exhibition of textile fabrics, etc.

The Missouri state legislature appropriated $30,000 for the erection of the building, but later 20 per cent of this amount was held up by the governor. Indications at present, however, are that this amount will be released to help pay the cost of the construction.

When finished the building will be one of the finest in the state.

DIED OF INJURIES

MR. MARTIN RENKIN, ONE OF PETTIS COUNTY'S MOST PROMINENT CITIZENS.

HE FELL FROM LOAD OF HAY JAN., 31

Born in Germany and Came to America in the Early 60s—Funeral Services in Sedalia on Monday Afternoon.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Martin Renkin, one of Central Missouri's biggest stock raisers and a director of the Sedalia National bank, died at his home about three miles west of Mora Saturday morning, as a result of injuries sustained last Monday, when he fell from a wagon loaded with hay.

Mr. Renkin was 65 years of age and owned a 900-acre farm, located near Mora. At the time of the accident he was driving a team of horses, pulling a wagon load of hay, when the wagon run into a ditch and Mr Renkin fell.

His spinal column was injured and his entire body except his head was completely paralyzed. His condition had been pronounced critical and little hope, if any, had been entertained for his recovery.

Mr. Renkin was born and reared in Germany. He came to America in the early '60s, and settled in New York. He was married there in 1873 to Miss Johanna Stockfleth, a native of Germany, who came to this country shortly after Mr. Renkin did.

The same year Mr. Renkin migrated west, settling on the same farm where he had resided since leaving the Empire state. He was economical and saving and in time amassed considerable wealth, and at the time of his death was considered one of the county's most well-to-do and subtsantial citizens.

The widow and four children survive Mr. Renkin, the children being: Herman, a farmer of Houstonia; Andrew, a farmer living near the Renkin home; Mrs. Peter Harms, of Benton county; Miss Wilhelmina Renkin, residing at home.

He also leaves three brothers and a sister. One of the brothers is Henry Renkin, a farmer of near Mora. The other two live at Sweet Springs. The sister lives in Germany.

Mr. Renkin formerly was a member of the Masonic order, holding membership in New York. He belonged to the German Lutheran church.

The Rev. Charles Baepler, pastor of the German Lutheran church in this city, will conduct funeral services at the edifice at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

CITY LIMITS EXTENSION

ORGANIZE LEAGUE?

A SUGGESTION FOR BASEBALL "FANS" OF SEDALIA AND OTHER CITIES.

CIRCUIT OF SIX OR EIGHT CLUBS

Why Not a League With Teams in Joplin, Springfield, Nevada, Jefferson City, Webb City and Sedalia This Year?

(From Sunday's Daily)

Information in yesterday's metropolitan newspapers to the effect that Springfield has surrendered its franchise in the Western association, marks the exit of the last member of the old Missouri Valley league, of which Sedalia was a member.

Here in Sedalia that baseball organization was conceived and born and for one season Sedalia had the championship.

As time passed the name of the organization was changed to the Western association. One by one the old cities dropped out and new ones took their places in Kansas and Oklahoma.

This took the Missouri cities to the circumference of the circuit and so far from its center of gravity that the long distance to be traveled, and the resultant expenses, together with the increase in salaries incident to the rise in the class of the association, made it impracticable for them to continue their membership.

However, the incident suggests that possibly there might be a renascence of the old organization, or something similar to it.

Why not a Missouri league, like the Kansas and Iowa and many other state leagues?

The Democrat-Sentinel suggests to the sporting editors of Springfield, Joplin, Webb City, Nevada and Jefferson City the feasibility of those five cities joining with Sedalia and forming a six-club league, or if an eight-club Missouri-Kansas organization is more desirable, include two out of such cities as Iola, Parsons, Fort Scott, Pittsburg and Coffeyville, or possibly substitute one or more additional Kansas cities for a like number of the Missouri cities, if the latter did not care to join.

By organizing as a class "D" league, with a proper salary limit, a very interesting article of baseball can be offered the lovers of the sport in the proposed circuit.

Let the newspaper brethren in the cities mentioned submit these suggestions to the local fans, and something of permanent value may result, if not at once, in course of time, towards the organization of the proposed new baseball circuit.

WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

Another Surprise Sprung on the Members of Knights and Ladies.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Inconvenienced by not having elevator service and the failure of the contractors to get the large hall in the Royal Tribe of Joseph building transformed into a hard wood floor for Friday night's meeting of Fidelity council No. 53, Knights and Ladies of Security caused much discontent among the members, but not daunted by these obstacles the small hall was arranged for the meeting and 200 members crowded each other for seats.

After balloting on seven application cards, it was decided to dispense with initiations and only transact routine work, among which was the election of Judge H. B. Shain as prelate. The flower committee reported quite a number of members sick and flowers sent to them to brighten and make more cheerful their room.

Under the "good of the order," several good talks were made by R. C. Combs, Judge D. E. Kennedy, H. B. Shain, Will O'Bannon, E. D. Bosserman, George Bichsel, W. W. Blain and others.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies the president of the council, Dr. W. J. Ferguson, whose wholesome enthusiasm and hard work has won for the order an unprecedented growth in lodge annals in Sedalia and endeared himself to the members, announced that he had arranged with Henry Leist, the well known caterer, to serve a little banquet after the meeting, consisting of slicd boiled tongue, cold roast beef, deviled eggs, pickled onions, celery, pickles, cheese and coffee, which is known as one of Mr. Leist's famous palatable Dutch lunches.

Dancing and other amusements were indulged in at the conclusion of the banquet until the midight hour.

ASSOCIATION HAD MEET

Enthusiastic Session Held at the Court House Saturday.

The members of the Pettis County Anti-Trespass association met with a good attendance at the county court room at the court house Saturday.

Interesting talks on fruit culture, spring and orchard culture were given by Ernest Thomson and John T. Stinson, after which Arthur L. Small, of Bloomfield, N. J., furnished some interesting discussion in a talk on "Soil Inoculation With Bacteria by Pure Cultures of Nitro-Gathering Bacteria, Especially for Alfalfa."

Each subject was well discussed.

The high prices of meat was also a topic of discussion, the general concensus of opinion being that the high price of meat as compared with lower prices in the past was due to the greater consumption.

THE TANGLE GROWING

Swope Case In Kansas City a Picnic for the Lawyers.

Associated Press.

Kansas City, Feb. 5.—Further complications developed today in the tangle growing out of the efforts of the attorneys on both sides of the Swope case to secure advantage in taking depositions in the suits brought last week by Dr. Hyde for $600,000 damages for alleged slander.

Circuit Judge Brumback Thursday issued a temporary order, restraining the lawyers from taking depositions, but dissolved the injunctions today, on the ground that he had no jurisdiction.

Then Frank P. Walsh, representing Dr. Hyde, secured an injunction from Judge Powell, at Independence, restraining the opposing attorneys from taking depositions.
